The Carpenters

Like the ugly duckling that suddenly came of age, sophomores were awakened and found themselves the same, yet somehow different.

They floated in from Peralta, Cerro Villa and numerous district and state schools. No one knew anyone, and some sophomores knew no one. They were herded together, led through registration then free to find their way and hopefully themselves.

Sophomores are traditionally the bottom of the system. They are shorter than the crowds. They are invariably lost, confused and late, but the class of '80 emerged cheering.

They were overflowing with spirit, competition and vitality. They herded in mass numbers to the "Hi" dance and dominated the floor, their numbers appeared at every function and activity.

Classes provided variety from their limited junior high choices, but suddenly so much was required. They were presented with graduation standards, class grading scales, notebook, projects, essays then they realized that They've Only Just Begun.

The Hard Way Everytime

Jim Croce

Athletics is a power. It is not merely the ability to be best, but rather the ability to try.

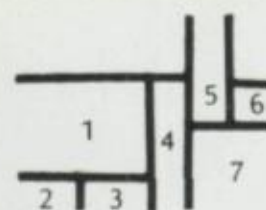

To every hour of competition there are twenty hours of practice. Practice where there is no glory, no loyal fans, and no motivation besides that which you are willing to put forth.

Villa Park strived to be first. Some were, most weren't, but they have learned that second is not failure. Failure is when you don't try, or don't care.

Every athlete can remember the time they were beaten 27-0, the time they practiced in the park because they had to run through it just one more time. The water was cold, it was 6 am and you went to class with wet hair. You got up at 8 am to watch films when you can still clearly remember all the mistakes. This is an athlete, a person who keeps saying The Hard Way Everytime they don't take the easy way out.

1. The water polo team gathers at the side of the pool to discuss strategy before the game begins.
2. V.P.H.S. girls cross-country runs long distances every day pushing themselves to lower their times.

3. Jim Balok eyes to pass the ball.
4. Eric Freidenreich strides through Eisenhower park during a track meet.
5. Becky Reed volleys the ball during practice.
6. Sandy Papas prepares to spike the ball.
7. Steve Brown drops back to pass to a downfield receiver.

It's More Than A Feeling

Boston

When looking back, high school days are referred to as "the best times of your life." Teens "have it easy" and "don't have a care."

Within the facade of memory lies reality. Problems and emotions rule the strange struggle for maturity.

High school days are not merely classes and routine for those that reach below the surface and struggle for expression. Peer pressure constantly influences students. There are also the standards from home and pressures for the future.

Common problems constantly plague teenagers. Is my face too broken out?

Do I have a date for the dance? Do I look all right? What is my mom going to say about my "D" in algebra? Did she find out about Saturday? How can I get a readmit when they compare signatures? Will he let me play Saturday when I've been late for the last five practices?

Yes, It's More Than A Feeling. It was the worst days of your life, at least part of them.

1. The songleaders execute their routine as the band sits watching.
2. Susan Hanson shuffles papers as she readies for the next registration table.

3. Jim Balok looks back to see where the noise is coming from.

4. Peggy Avila voices her opinion in World History.

5. Kris Jones leads the line of drill team girls during a half time show.

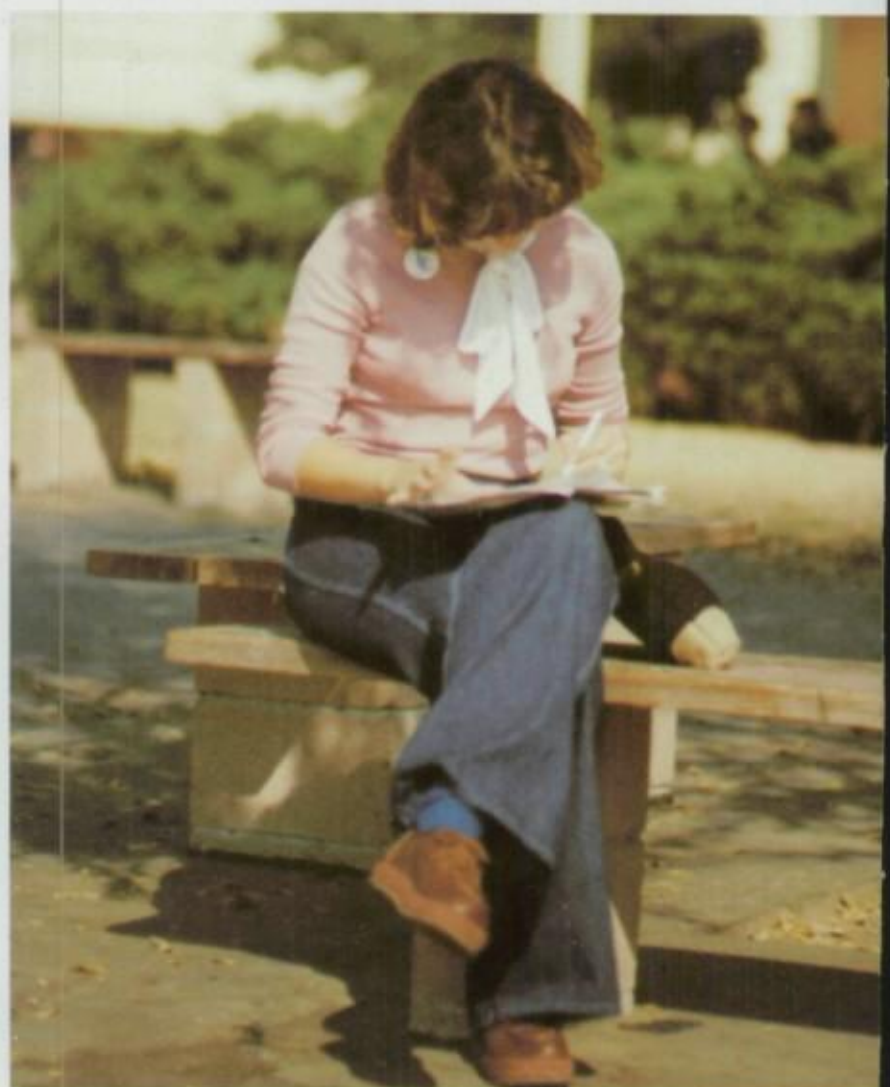

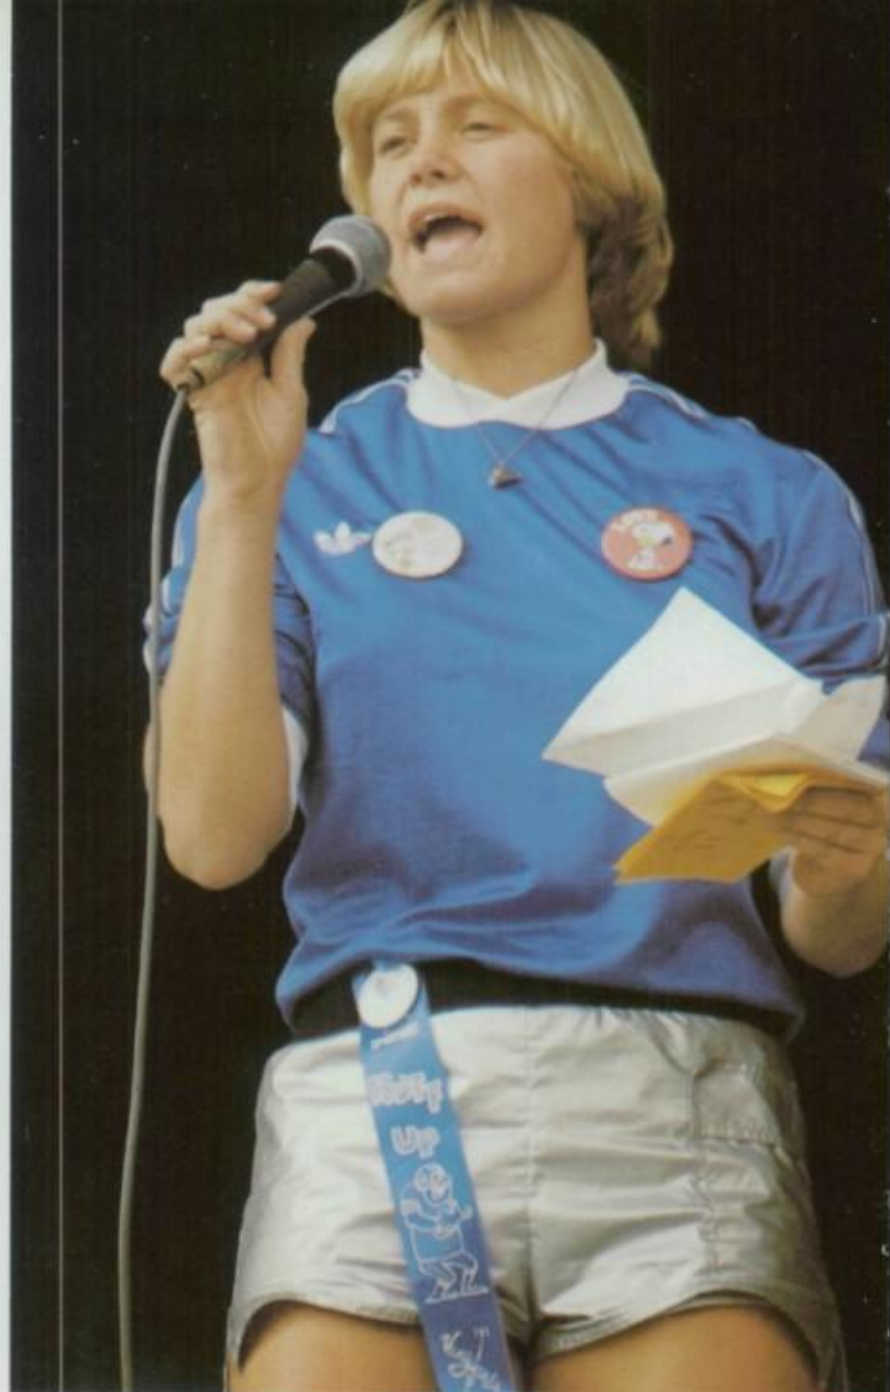

6. Rob England slowly walks to class, eying the crowd.

I Am Woman

2. Posing for an Oracle article photo Brian Mason proves that He Has Never Been This Far Before.
3. Odyssey staff photographer Lindi Walker contemplates the composition of a photo.

Since elementary school, every student has been counting the years until his graduation. They cheered it at every pep rally, had it printed on their class rings and longingly awaited the ceremony that would release them, graduation.

Suddenly, the summer is over and you are a senior. Somehow you're not how you had envisioned. You aren't grown-up, mature and ready for your future. You're still the same "kid" inside.

Even though you're not ready, nothing waits, you have to take the SATs, apply for colleges and keep pushing on even though you would rather just wait for a while.

Like a ball that has been slowly gaining momentum since the day you entered school it is now uncontrollable and there is no turning back. You realize that You've Never Been This Far Before and things will never be the same again.

4. Kathy Lehman considers the possibilities for her homework assignment.
5. Metal shop rod iron scraps prove no problem for Dale Frye and friends to relocate.
6. Alesia Boatright grimaces at the reaction Vocal Ensemble students have to her hairstyle.
7. Seniors enjoy the pep assembly on their familiar "Senior" benches.

1. Missy Stewart went bananas when dressing up for Halloween.
2. Lana Dalberg furiously attempts to blow up a balloon no-handed.
3. Janine Lewis and Leslie

4. Doug Kimbell demonstrates the dexterity of the water polo team.

5. Senior girls cheer and clap, demonstrating their school spirit during spirit week.

6. Cheerleaders finish their routine in unison.

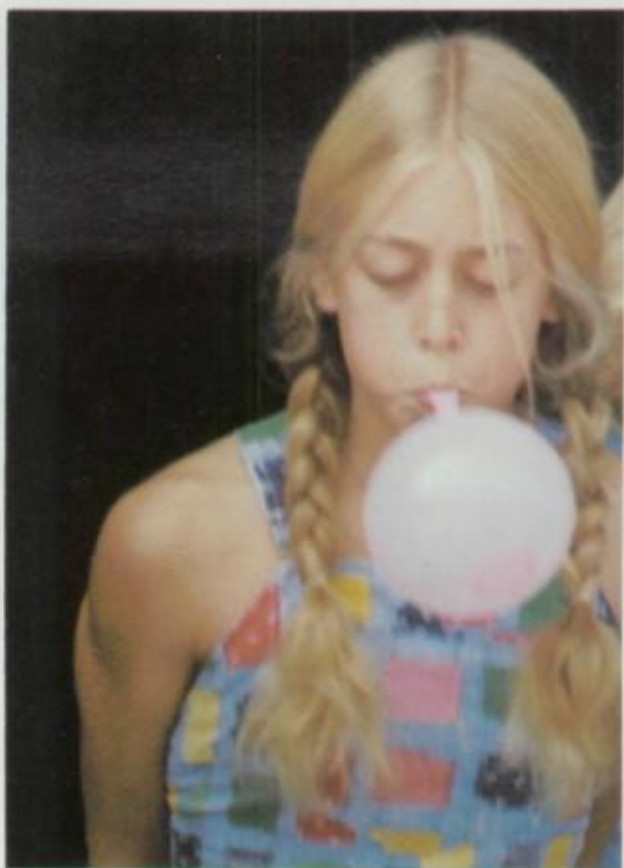

7. Gail Brandon stands at attention awaiting the whistle to begin marching.

Villa Park burst into the 1977-1978 school year with a group spirit never seen before. Gone was the apathy, vandalism and dissension of other schools and other years.

Sophomores joined in bubbling with the enthusiasm that was reminiscent of their junior high days. After a short summer, juniors and seniors returned with a rebirth of energy and competition. They united not as cheerleaders and football players but as students each with their own motivation and intensity.

School spirit came in many forms; football players played their best; runners ran their fastest. Cheerleaders yelled their loudest, the government strived for the finest ... everyone participated they dressed up, dressed down, painted banners, decorated lockers,

7. Janet Berchoilly talks with her friends during nutrition.

8. Susan Powell and Scott Taylor enjoy the shade of the trees during lunch.

You've Got a Friend

Carole King

Inherent within us all is the need to be needed. High school is not merely a physical state of academics and course curriculum but it is also a time for friendship and camaradery.

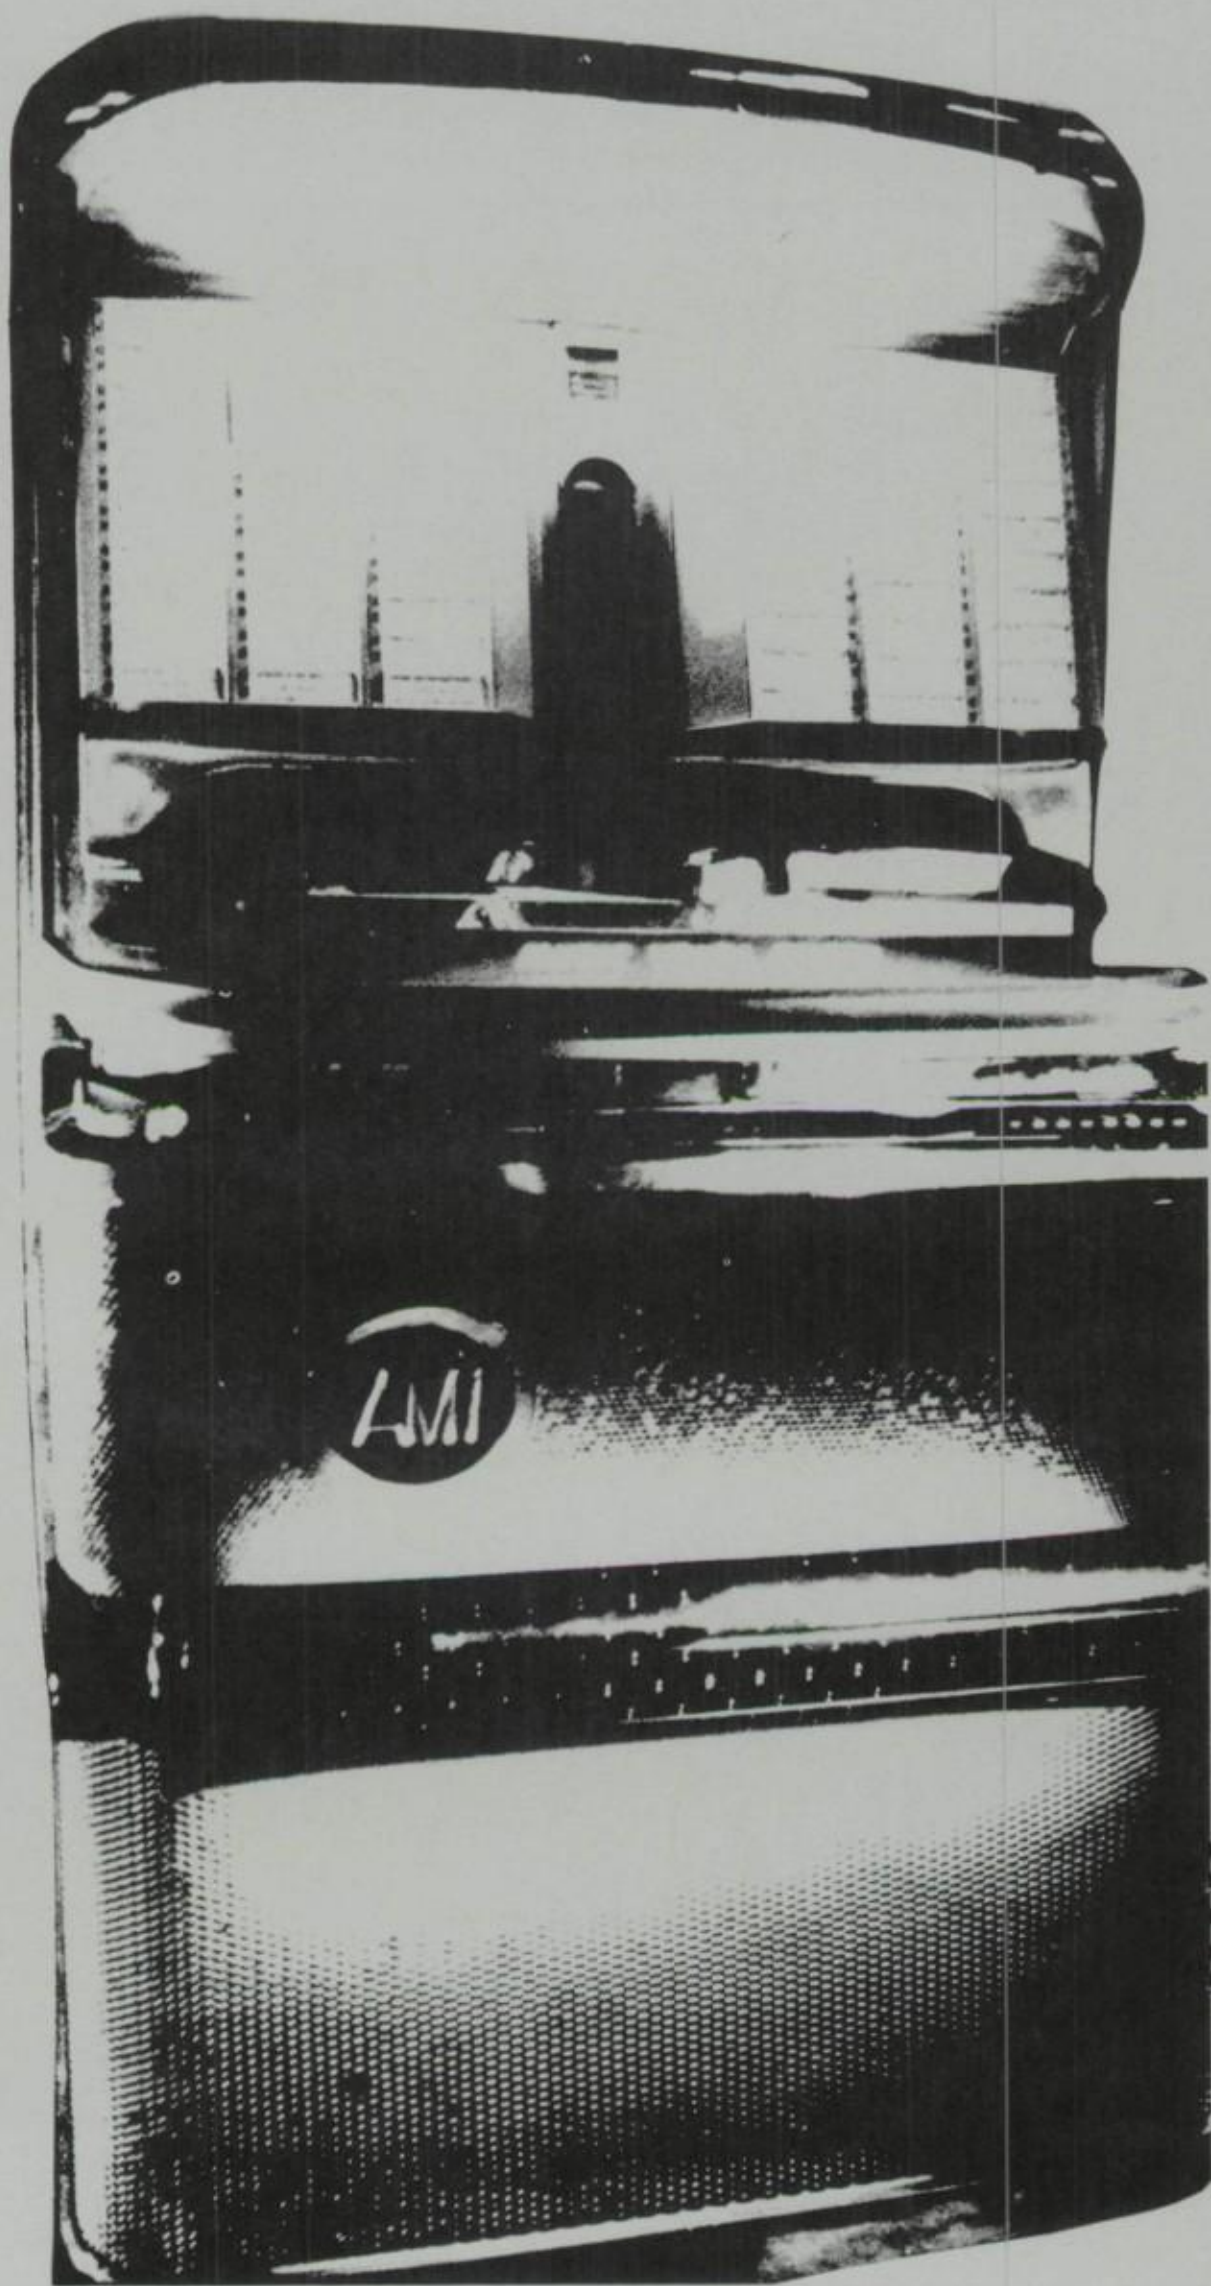

High school will be remembered not by the score of the game, the homecoming queen, or the thirty page yearbook paper but by the friends you made and kept.

Girls walk the halls sharing their problems, sad times and happy times. A couple holds hands sitting on the grass during a sunny lunch break. The team gets together at Sizzler to discuss the game, or maybe they just eat and laugh; they are friends.

At lunch the benches are lined with groups and couples, people sit on the grass, under the trees, and lean over the balcony, they are friends, they depend on each other. When Villa Park is just a memory it's the sunshine and the friends that will be remembered.

Student Life

1. Talking to fellow cheerleader, Kathy Losi, laughs at a witty comment. 2. Varsity Cheerleaders show their spirit by dressing up for Halloween. 3.

Chris Haydt cheers as fellow classmates look on. 4. Carolyn Van Den Berg anxiously awaits her turn to cheer. 5. Varsity Cheerleaders cheer on despite the loss of the Spirit Stick. 6. Chris Haydt, Lori Rosacker, Lisa Buffington lead yell at Orange pep assembly. 7. Cheering in unison the varsity pepsters shake.

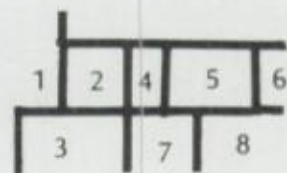

Cheerleading is an experience every girl should have. But once you are elected captain on working and believe me you have to be able to give and take.

Nadia Ansari

After working from 8 to 10 am every morning in summer school, the pep squads traveled to Santa Barbara to attend the U.S.A. Cheerleading and Songleading camp. They learned many different routines and cheers. They were at the camp for four days and three nights. At the end of the trip both the Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleading squads came home with trophies for excellence and spirit sticks.

1. Band members stand playing during their Disneyland Performance. 2. The baritones perform during a football half-time. 3. The band stands in perfect rank in file awaiting the signal from their director. 4. Band director Rick Hittinger gives a ready signal to his band. 5. Banners stand fast waiting for half-time to begin. 6. 1976-1977 drum major Bill Bower leads the Homecoming half-time. 7. Betsy Walli sternly concentrates on her double flag routine. 8. Band members stand in position during a morning practice.

"We marched to the beat of a different director."

Steve Morris

The band and drill team faced many difficult problems as they marched into 1977-1978.

They opened their season with a new director, Rick Hittinger and a fresh new sophomore drum major, Randy Page.

Much like other years the band and drill team spent many long hours practicing and working up their half-me and parade routines. They stepped off on their left foot by placing first in all areas of their initial competition, San Fernando.

The band practiced every Thursday night, pacing the parking lot until well into the evening. Drill team met most mornings as early as 6:15 to learn and perfect routines. After hours of practice they emerged as a unit and overcame their earlier difficulties.

"Being a cheerleader my senior year made it my best year at Villa Park."

Chris Haydt

Ms. Gail Hanger, pep squad advisor, said "The girls were really super."

A typical week during football season a varsity song or cheerleader works many hours behind the scenes for the scant time in front of the crowd.

They would meet each day second period, plan skits for a pep assembly on Friday, learn a new routine or yell, fix a surprise for a varsity athlete, decorate lockers and generally practice hard.

1. Diane Speich pensively watches as Villa Park makes another first down. 2. Jackie Graham and Jamie Phelps look on as junior cheerleaders perform in spirit competition. 3.

Benchwarmers await the conclusion of half-time show to set up signs. 4. Being signaled from backstage by Jodi Mullen, Leslie Moyer is cued for the next cheer. 5. Liz Boulger keeps time for the seniors as they yell "78 is great". 6. Concerned about the score Jackie Graham watches our fumble recovery. 7. Temporarily sidelined JV cheerleaders watch varsity pep routine.

Homecoming was a time for the past. Past graduates emerged to see the football team victorious, the Homecoming queen crowned and returned the next night for the Homecoming dance.

Everyone waited in anticipation for the queen to be announced, the bond of secrecy held until the very last moment when Nadia Ansari was crowned. A flood of tears and hugs followed, then the court walked to get their pictures taken, Jill Jory supported by decorated pink crutches.

While the memory of the crowning lingered, the team returned to clinch the game, defeating Orange 17-0.

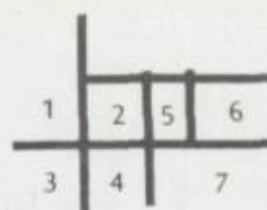

"I think that Homecoming turned out really well, I will remember it for a long time."

Michelle Julian

Homecoming 1977-1978 will long be remembered as the dance on campus that "really wasn't that bad", the crown that somehow wouldn't stay on Nadia's head and the dog on the carpet. Nothing is ever perfect but most say that it will remain a sweet memory till they are returning as alumni to some future homecoming.

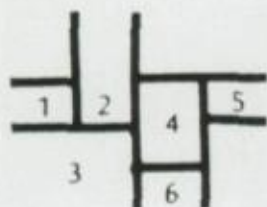

1. Spectators stand to watch the kickoff. 2. Dale Frye and Patricia Haretakis enjoy Homecoming in a quiet way. 3. Cheerleaders build a pyramid celebrating the last seconds of the game. 4. Liz Boulgers dog

1. Jeannine Lewis watches in amazement as sophomores rack up points. 2. Sophomore pepsters watch on as the team rallies for a first down. 3. During a pep assembly the sophomores act out a skit. 4. Leslie Goldberg executes a cheer with skill 5. Jeannine Lewis and Jamie Phelps dosee-doe to "Hey Crowd". 6. Impressed with sophomore score Jamie Phelps glows with pride. 7. Waving to Drill Team friends performing at half-time Kathy Losi approves of their performance.

The only thing bad about being a cheerleader is the expense but I love it so much it's worth it"

Marie Van Vooren

They made up new cheers for each sport and sports season trying to cover all sports. They especially looked forward to basketball and wrestling season after a long grueling football season.

Pep Commissioner, Janel Ritchie, made up the skits and the girls performed at each assembly.

Janel commented, "Having an odd number of girls on the pep squad made the skit production challenging." "They looked nice and sure put everyone in a good mood," said Scott Holt.

1. Mr. Robinson. 2. Sophomores make signs to make sure everyone knows who won. 3. Robin Hood meets with his merry men during nutrition. 4. The sophomores and seniors battle it out in the tug-of-war. 5. Liz Boulger tells everyone who is number one. 6. The monsters emerge to join in VP's festivities. 7. Senior's victory hopes go up in smoke. 8. The senior hillbillies watch the skits during their spirit day.

The juniors started off Spirit Week by showing up as the "Junior Jocks", then following the pattern the sophomores sailed in as the winning class as "Sail on Sophomores". The seniors then put on their good duds, blackened out their teeth, took off their shoes and came to school as the senior hillbillies.

On their individual days some of the classes arrived at 3 AM to decorate using streamers, balloons, foil, paint, banners, and shaving cream. Nutrition had many events with the main attraction being a tug-of-war, between the sophomores and the seniors, the sophomores again emerged victorious.

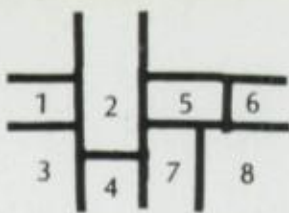

"Villa Park's spirit has really improved, everyone is participating not just a few of the cheerleaders."

Janel Ritchie

1. Matt Shaker, Lil Bouchelle, and Terry Stocker harmonize. 2. An animated Ron Browne, choral director, leads the Chamber Singers in a Christmas Medley. 3. Chamber Singers Paul Wackym, Robyn Cutler, Cheryl Allen, Don Isabel, and Carol Hoage rehearse Christmas Carols. 4. With a dramatic flair, June Yokagawa, Mitch Cohen, Celeste Tavera and Art Howansky end a tune. 5. Mike Tavera awaits cue to start number with Jan Warner, Tanya Ingwersen, Betsy Ross and Matt Shaker. 6. Vocal Ensemble Students prepare for their next routine. 7. Karen Storruste reviews the choreography of the vocal ensemble. 8. Rick Davidson (keeping time with his pencil), Wayne Sheets, and Jenny Warren concentrate on the newly assigned tempo as Randy Fontana quips with a friends.

The Villa Park Highschool choirs kept their outstanding reputation once again. A change was made in the choirs offered to to students Villa Park Highschool in which Mr. Browne, the choral director excluded Women's Glee and Concert Choir, I added Vocal Jazz. Besides having a lot of fun, the 78 Vocal Jazz group practiced complicated harmonies, raps and scat singing. The many hours of practice were rewarded by much applause at the church, school, festival, other performances that the Vocal Jazz, Vocal Ensemble, and Chamber Singers participated in throughout the year.

"Choir has been one of my more enjoyable experiences of my senior year."

Greg Hudson

The band and drill team had a very diversified year participating in several events they had never done before. The band appeared at Disneyland, playing at a Goodyear promotional banquet. The twirling flags twirled at a Rams game and they hoped to perhaps make a tour to Portland.

They competed in their traditional competitions placing first in Granada, fourth in Arcadia and fourth in the Southern Field Tournament. They marched in every home game through the rain, wind and fog, suffering many wet shakos, head colds and faded uniforms.

In all, most band members stated that they enjoyed the year but expect to place better in their competitions next year.

All of the early mornings, the first periods, and the Thursday night practices made me have second thoughts about doing any 10-minute half-times. Then I put on my uniform and it all seemed to come together."

John Malloy

1. The band shows off their perfect form at half times.
2. Leslie Wetton marches with that Spartan Pride.
3. Laurie Class twirls to "Star Wars" at an October half time.
4. Sheri Hedin beams with spirit as she performs.
5. Drill team members are always at attention.

"Nobody's spirits

Karen Ford

1. Eric Tuerffs and Allison Hughes dance up a storm at Coronation.
2. Coronation King and Queen Matt Kahn and Michelle Julian share the first dance after the crowning.
3. Coronation Court- Phil Rodgers, Steve Morris, Steve Sandoval, Matt Kahn, Mark Kahn, Chris Cleveland,odi Mullen, Liane Reichert, Michelle Julian, Patty pliglanin, Pam Horwitz.
4. Kelle Baitz and Michelle Julian dance to "Sound's" tunes.
5. The Coronation Court dances to their own slow dance.
6. Michelle Julian, Coronation Queen, shares her excitement with a friend.

The 1978 Coronation Dance turned out to really be a fun dance with 131 couples turning up. It was one of the better Villa Park Dances. Everyone went and had a wonderful time. They rocked out to the group "Sound" and at 10:30 crowned the King and Queen, Matt Kahn and Michelle Julian. The court consisted of six guys and six girls.

It was hard to pick a king and queen since all had contributed to making the school a better place.

Girl-Date-Boy, sponsored by Girl's League, was held in the large gym. It was the second of three dances to be held on campus because of the new district policy. Several problems were caused because of the size of the gym. Acoustic problems were partially solved by the hanging of parachutes. Comments about the music (by "City") were positive despite the acoustics. Another concern was how to create the atmosphere of "Southern Nights". Large backdrops were supplied to enhance the appearance of the gym.

Villa Park High School working in conjunction with Canyon High School ran a Dating Game. Students were treated to a special assembly February 14 to watch Villa Park contestants Matt Kahn, Jim Weneta, and Mitch Cohen compete for a date with Canyon co-ed Laura McConnell. Laura chose bachelor number two, Jim Weneta. Later three other Canyon ladies competed for a date with Villa Park gentleman Willie Williams. Willie chose Ginger Bagley as his date. The two couples had a lovely evening of dinner and the play "It's Never Too Late" at the Harlequin Dinner Theatre in Santa Ana.

1. Willie Williams greets date Ginger Bagley from Canyon High School.
2. Villa Park students Jim Weneta and Willie Williams learn they are to take their dates to Harlequin's.

Sailing The Lightship Illustus

I've lived, but never seen a Lightship.
I can name the most famous:
Cloud Clipper, Flame of the West, and foremost- the Lightship Illustus.
Sleek, silver bodies (Silver?
Not as bright as a river or eye's sparkle.)
Eight hundred feet
of quicksilver flowing beneath the moon,
Eight hundred feet
of burnished steel blazing in the sun.

Bah! A dirigible can so blaze and flow.
But above the plated flying fish
Stands a grove of masts.
Fore-, firstsecondthird main-, and mizzen mast,
Branching, Pale blue sails full and taut (Pale blue?
You can't match nature's sapphire. Don't try.)
A spider's web of rigging that no army of spiders could ever hope to spin.
Standards fluttering higher than any leaf.

And eight hundred feet above the hull,
Secure in their eagle's nests,
The look-outs sing out the air-whales
"Whale-cloud, ho!" "Unicorns, ho!"
Keep sharp watch! Here be dragons . . .

(Yes, and there are dragons. There are.)
Oh, yes, I've lived an honest life
But I've never seen a Lightship.

Chris Cleveland

Standard Deviation

If
we- homo-sapiens are supposed to be thinking creatures,

then we must be part-time thinking creatures,

for we surely cannot be thinking when we expect everyone to think within the confines of a bell curve.

An adventuress I was,
Probing the depths of an endless wilderness.
Or, so it seemed as on I ran,
Skimming over the gentle, curving land.
Eucalyptus trees, ancient and bearded, loomed above me,
Their pungent breath filling my lungs, and cooling like chilled spring water.
From deep within the leafy caverns,
Birds hurrayed and chirruped my passing.
So on, and on I ran,
Gliding into the heart of something living.
Slipping into pulsating green.

Dance choreography is a three quarter class. They begin first quarter exploring techniques and learning styles. Second quarter they begin preparing solos and presentation for their concert. The third quarter is filled with practice preparations, then finally their production.

Members of the dance choreography class were chosen by ballot the previous year. Twenty-five were selected but only nineteen participated due to class conflicts. Although several boys were chosen only one remained, peer pressure was said to be a major factor in the numerical decline.

The class proved to have a wide variety of talent, not only in dancing ability but also in choreography and production as demonstrated by the quality of routines for the Christmas assembly, many produced in only one week.

1. Graceful form expressed as Cheryl Tartter creates her dance.
2. Coming to a pause in her dance, Angel exemplifies emotion.
3. Beth Haluza perfects a pose.
4. Val Lenz, Lynette Okubo, and Lisa Buffington practice a tap routine.

5. Practicing toe pivots Val Lenz increases toe strength.
6. Rehearsing a hip set, Paul Strupp and Nadia Ansari reflect on the difficulty.
7. Leslie Moyer and Sherrie Staump perform delicate ballet movements.
8. Kathy Wall and Sabrina Blake display symmetrical arrangement.

The A.S.B. Cabinet tried to improve communications between the Cabinet and the Students. A moving digital sign was purchased, two marquees, plus the newsletter, etc. . . .

The House of Representatives voted on such things as the A.S.B. budget, the addition of the office of Historian plus they discussed problems faced by those people who showed up during the 3rd period meetings held every 3 weeks.

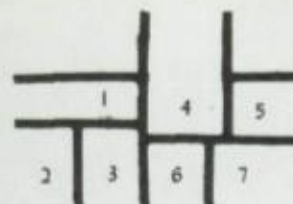

Senators helped whenever they were needed and also voted with the House of Representatives.

The Dance Club is basically a group that works on developing new techniques of dance. They choreograph all their own dances and will be participating in Dance Choreography's production. Their main project for the year was sponsoring the Girl-Date-Boy dance in February.

The International Club is the group of students who sponsor students from other countries. This year there were four official exchange students Lars Munge (Sweden), Janicke Hellan (Norway), Rosie Schultheiss (Switzerland), and Lena Hakansson (Sweden).

VPHS's Ski Club took two major trips, one to Utah for a week of skiing during Christmas and one to Lake Tahoe for a weekend in February.

The club teamed up with an organization called Coast Skiers in order to make more trips possible. Advisor Greg Benoit found accommodations at low prices so that more people could participate in the ski club.

The Computer Club is a group of students interested in the field of computer programming. Although the club is small this year, consisting of only four members they still have a good time and can work on more detailed and individual as well as group projects; For example, a portrait.

The Key Club of VPHS is very closely related to the Kiwanas of Orange County. This is an organization that does services for the community. The Kiwanas Club gives members a chance to help out in both school and in our community.

The "S" Club on campus can be seen doing many helpful things in the community at local hospitals or just selling concessions at games. This is a service club for girls closely affiliated with the Key Club.

The French Club had many more money making projects and lots of ways to spend their profits. They ate at French Restaurant and went carolling at Christmas. They devoted most of their time to polishing up their

French and learning its history.

Contrary to popular belief, German Club is not only open to German students, but to any student that is interested in German-like activities. The club had twenty-five members compared to the low membership of eight last year. Some of the activities German Club was involved in this year, were selling authentic German pretzels, to put some money in the treasury, a trip to a German restaurant, the Phoenix Club and a planned ski trip in the early part of second semester. Each progressive year, the German club has gotten better and it is hoped that next year membership will be stronger.

The Latin Club met every day as a regular class. They studied the Latin culture and customs. They visited Getty Museum to see the first century A.D. Roman Villa and competed in building and operating Roman catapults.

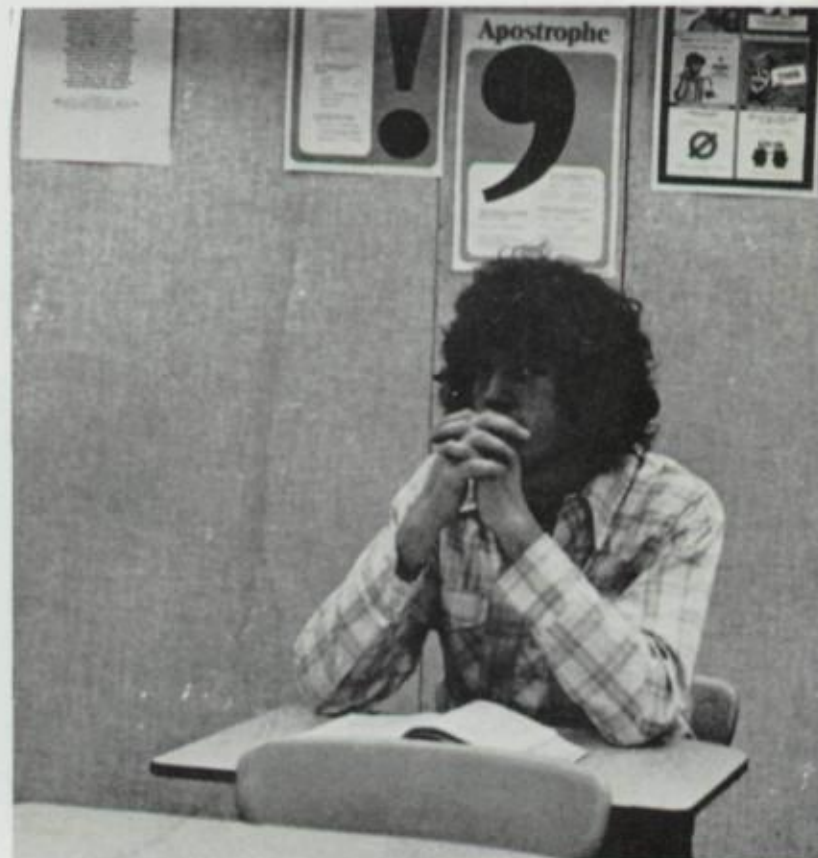

Spanish Club sold sweet bread at nutrition and lunch and made lots of money. Everyday was a sellout. They then invited Jr. High School students from Peralta and Cerro Vill to come here and join in the club's activities.

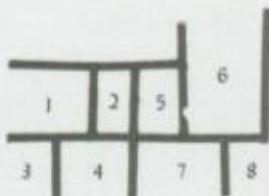

1. Careyn Brenier and David Kurtz listen to German speaker.
2. Glenn Allton, German club president, listens closely to other members as they read a german story.
3. Rod Eisenbeisz enjoys lunch during a Spanish club meeting.
4. Spanish club members voice their opinions during a meeting.
5. Julie Wernet, Liz McLaren, and Barb Liebi get caught off guard while doing a dramatic French reading.
6. Susan Jensvold and Theresa Parks listen intently to lecture in Latin.
7. Mary Norburg speaks only in Spanish at the Spanish club meetings.
8. A French prince decorates the wall in the French room, 109.
9. Geoff Greene absorbs everything that is said in Latin.

1. A bowling club member anxiously awaits the outcome of his first ball.
2. Drawing is a favorite thing for most art club members because it makes them think of the ideal model.

3. Julie Fisher carefully decides which course to take in flying to Los Angeles.
4. Mr. Keith Reid, Mr. Bob Hummell, Neil Schubert, David Libby, Jim Odium and Julie Fisher learn how to set up a flight pattern.
5. Steve Alcorn likes art because it lets him use his hands.
6. Bob Wedemeyer prepares a rope design for display in the art room.
7. Marc Nishino and David Kurtz play a very challenging game of chess as Ken Posthuma looks on.
8. Greg Miller gloats as he out wits his opponent.

"Art is doing what your mind tells you to do."

Missy Stuart

The Art Club's main project this year was working toward the Cypress Art Show that was held in March.

The club also worked on the development of their own individual talents.

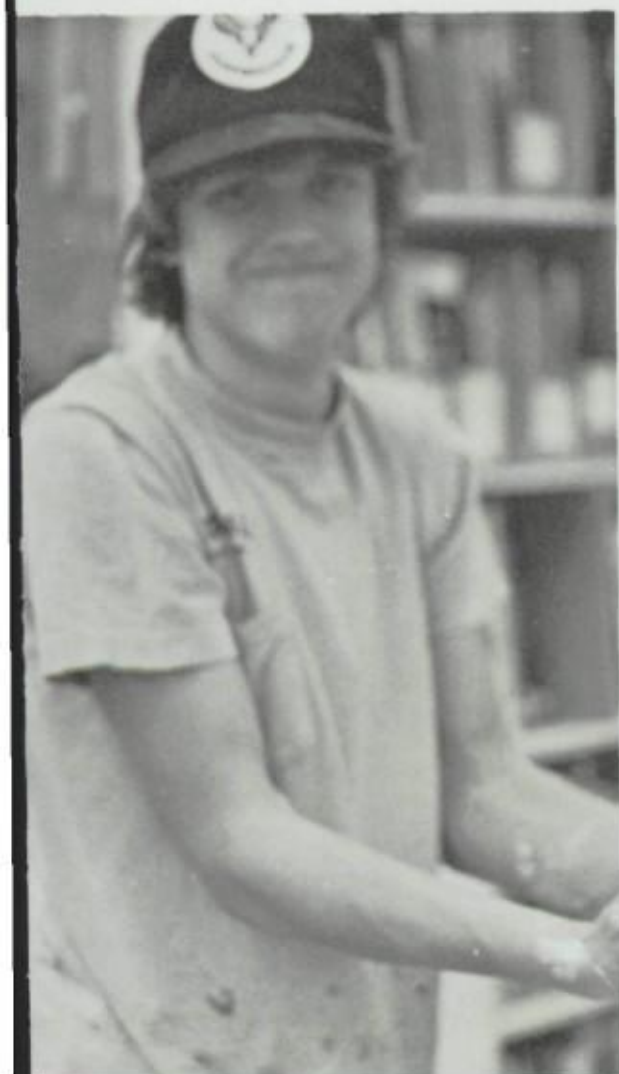

Bowling Club using the Brunswick Orange Bowl as their headquarters to have a "striking time". They met every Friday and in most situations rolled to a victory.

The Chess Club met this year everyday at lunch holding individual matches between themselves and other schools.

The Spartan Flyers have been busy this year holding car washes to raise money to rent airplanes for field trips. They met every Wednesday afternoon to discuss upcoming events and learn new aviation skills. Their home base was Orange County airport where all members attended ground school. Two members have their licenses. The club was organized just for the fun of flying and so far has been successful.

"I've spit up enough blood over this class. I feel I've done my part."

1. A line of photographers stand shooting a varsity football game.
2. Sonya Weileman discusses advertising policies with a prospective buyer.
3. Shelly Overton and Cindy Shields celebrate the completion of their pages.
4. With pica ruler in hand, Editor-in-Chief Karen Weileman finalizes her pages.
5. Checking a layout for correct column size, Advisor Norm Johnson finds everything in order.
6. Penny Grisham enjoys one of the few solitary moments.
7. Photographer Lindi Walker and Sports

Co-Editor Jim Weneta discuss "annual" in the quad.

8. Jamie Coulson enjoys a respite from ty class copy.

9. It's just another day of sunshine for photographer Tom Mastin.

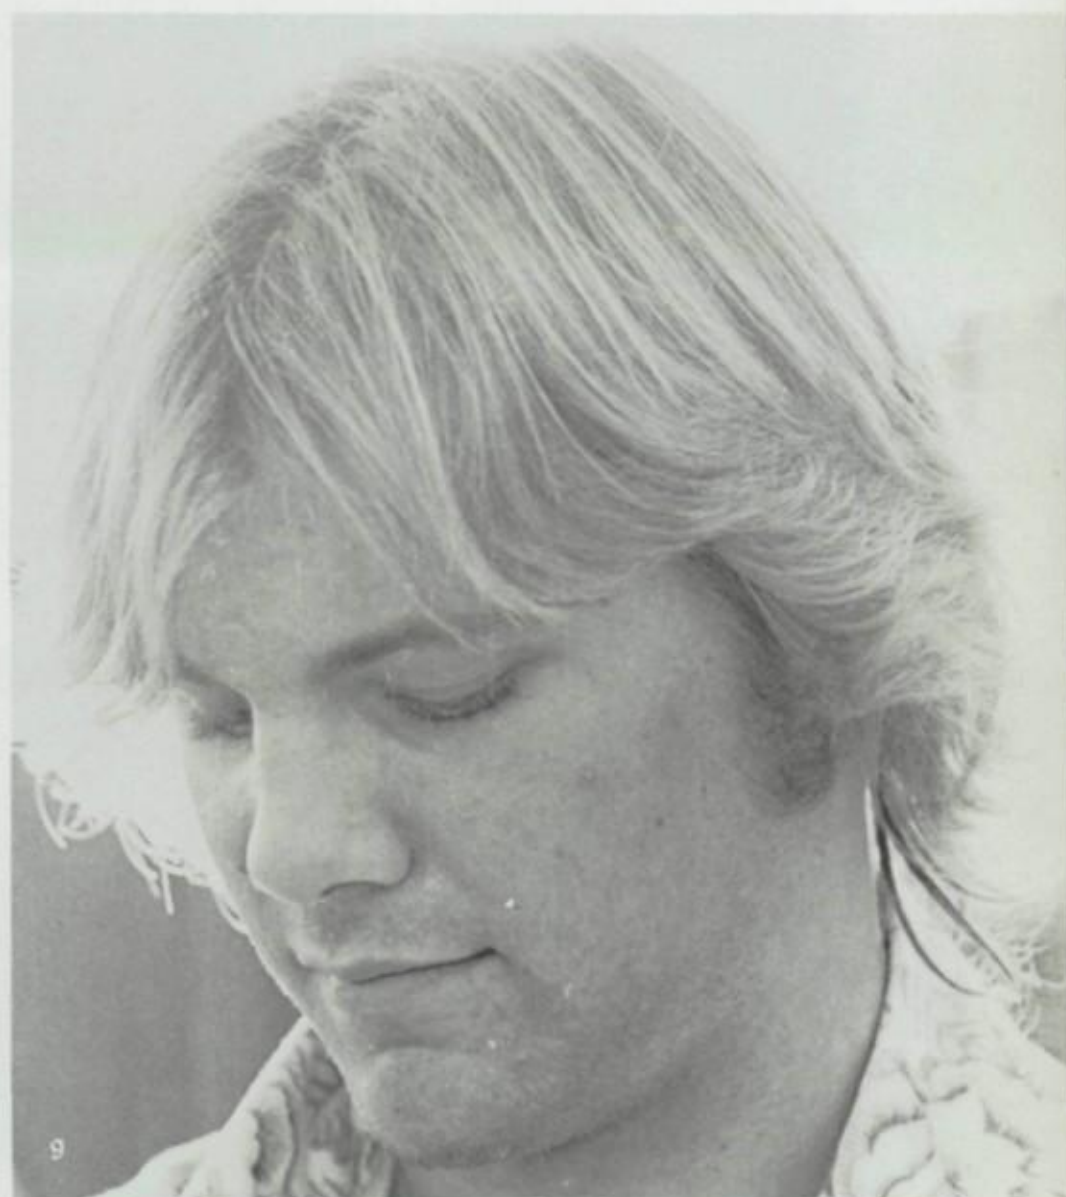

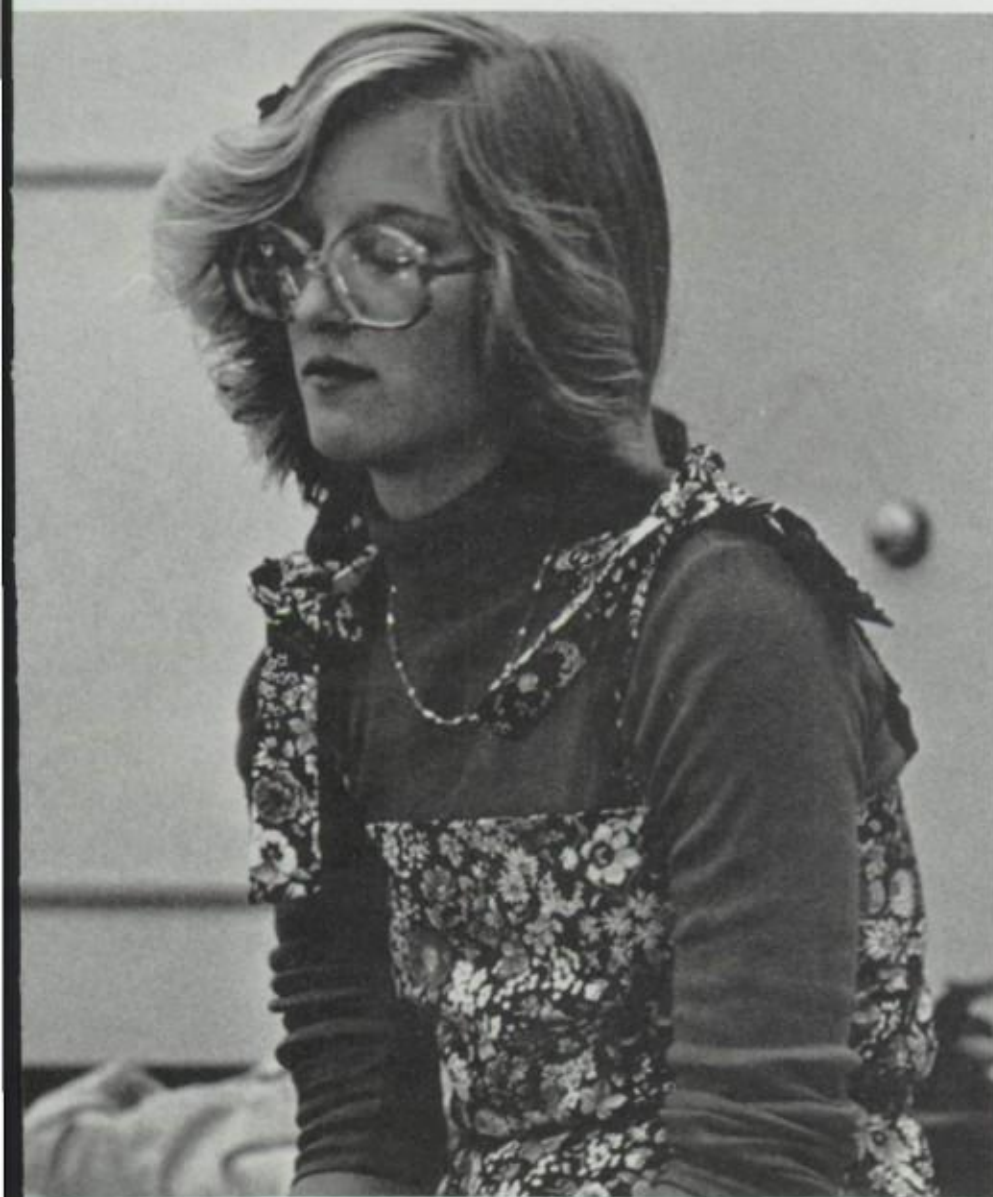

10. Annual Staff: Front row: Katy Kahn, Jamie Coulson, Jim Weneta, Karen Weileman, Shelly Overton; Middle Row: Jane Krick, Cindy Shields, Nancy Sipe; Back Row: Kenny O'Donnell, Shelly Evans, Sue Glasman, Penny Grisham, Cris Benson, Jean Krick, and Tom Mastin.

"Flunking annual is like flunking breathing."

Mr. Norm Johnson

Whenever a group of specialized people get together in the attempt of creating a product there will be problems. The staff, a group of photographers, writers, and editors went through a lot together. Deadlines we never met, negatives that just disappeared, hurt feelings, bad layouts and many other diseases like football games and parades that somehow hit our staff.

People walking into our room could see utter disorganizations, screaming editors, nasty notes on the board or they could see determination, hard work and a finished product depending on the weather, the date and the previous weekend.

Mr. Johnson once said, "Flunking annual is like flunking breathing," but some did and strangely found out that the globe didn't come to an abrupt halt. Some didn't quit, and for them there is an annual. Here it is and it's ours.

1. Dave Zaizar photographs in the early morning sun.
2. Al Clearc finds himself up against a wall at deadline time.
3. Brian Mason reclines in his favorite spot during a lax period.
4. Mr. Zakzeski voices his opinion in a discussion with a student.
5. Chris Cleveland responds to student editorial.
6. Sherrie Thomas contemplates an upcoming assignment.
7. Mike Albin works hard on his article.
8. Karen Ford regards an unwanted photographer.
9. Julie Bieglow enjoys a moment of free time at home.
10. Editors, Julie Bigelow, Mike Albin, Terry Simpson, Larry Sokolof, Karen Ford, Chris Cleveland

VPHS's newspaper "The Oracle" was put on by a group of students who bonded together in hopes of being journalists. They wrote stories on the typewriters that skip a space on O's, measured widths with half of a pica ruler and ordered pictures off of proof sheets that the annual staff called "ours".

The newspaper staff met every day third period, producing a newspaper every three weeks. The staff consisted of twenty-one people; very few were returning juniors and seniors, most were new to the staff or the school.

The newspaper became far more open and balanced this year than the past, attempting to present a more stable prospective.

The Editor-in-Chief was Chris Cleveland, Managing Editor was Terry Simpson and Section Editors were: News Editor-Julie Bigelow, Editorial Editor-Larry Sokoloff, Feature Editor-Karen Ford and Sports Editor-Mike Albin. Mr. Zakzeski was the staff advisor, his first year at VPHS.

"I just knew that I wanted to be on the staff . . . I didn't even have to ask myself."

Suzanne Sands

"I love it . . . it's my life or . . . it's going to be."

Julie Bigelow

"After marching season
just playing in class is kind of a let down."

Glenn Woodworth

The end of football halftimes and marching season was not the end of the Band. They continued to practice and perfect their music under the direction of Rick Hittinger, first semester, and Charles Jay the second. They still had concerts, school programs and a lot of musical skill to be achieved ahead of them.

Music continued to be an area where practice and more practice did make perfect.

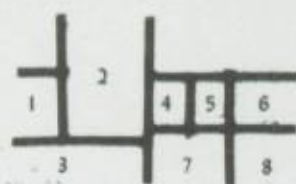

1. Darlene Haney quietly bows her bass.
2. Violinists, John Silzel, Jeff Dooley and Lana Dalberg enjoy playing rapid passage.
3. His saxophone reflecting the band room lights, Steve Morris follows along.
4. Percussionists watch the music waiting for their entrances.
5. Rex Gelert, Jeff Stange, and Craig Shultz play in unison.
6. Mr. Rick Hittinger leads the band during a rehearsal session.

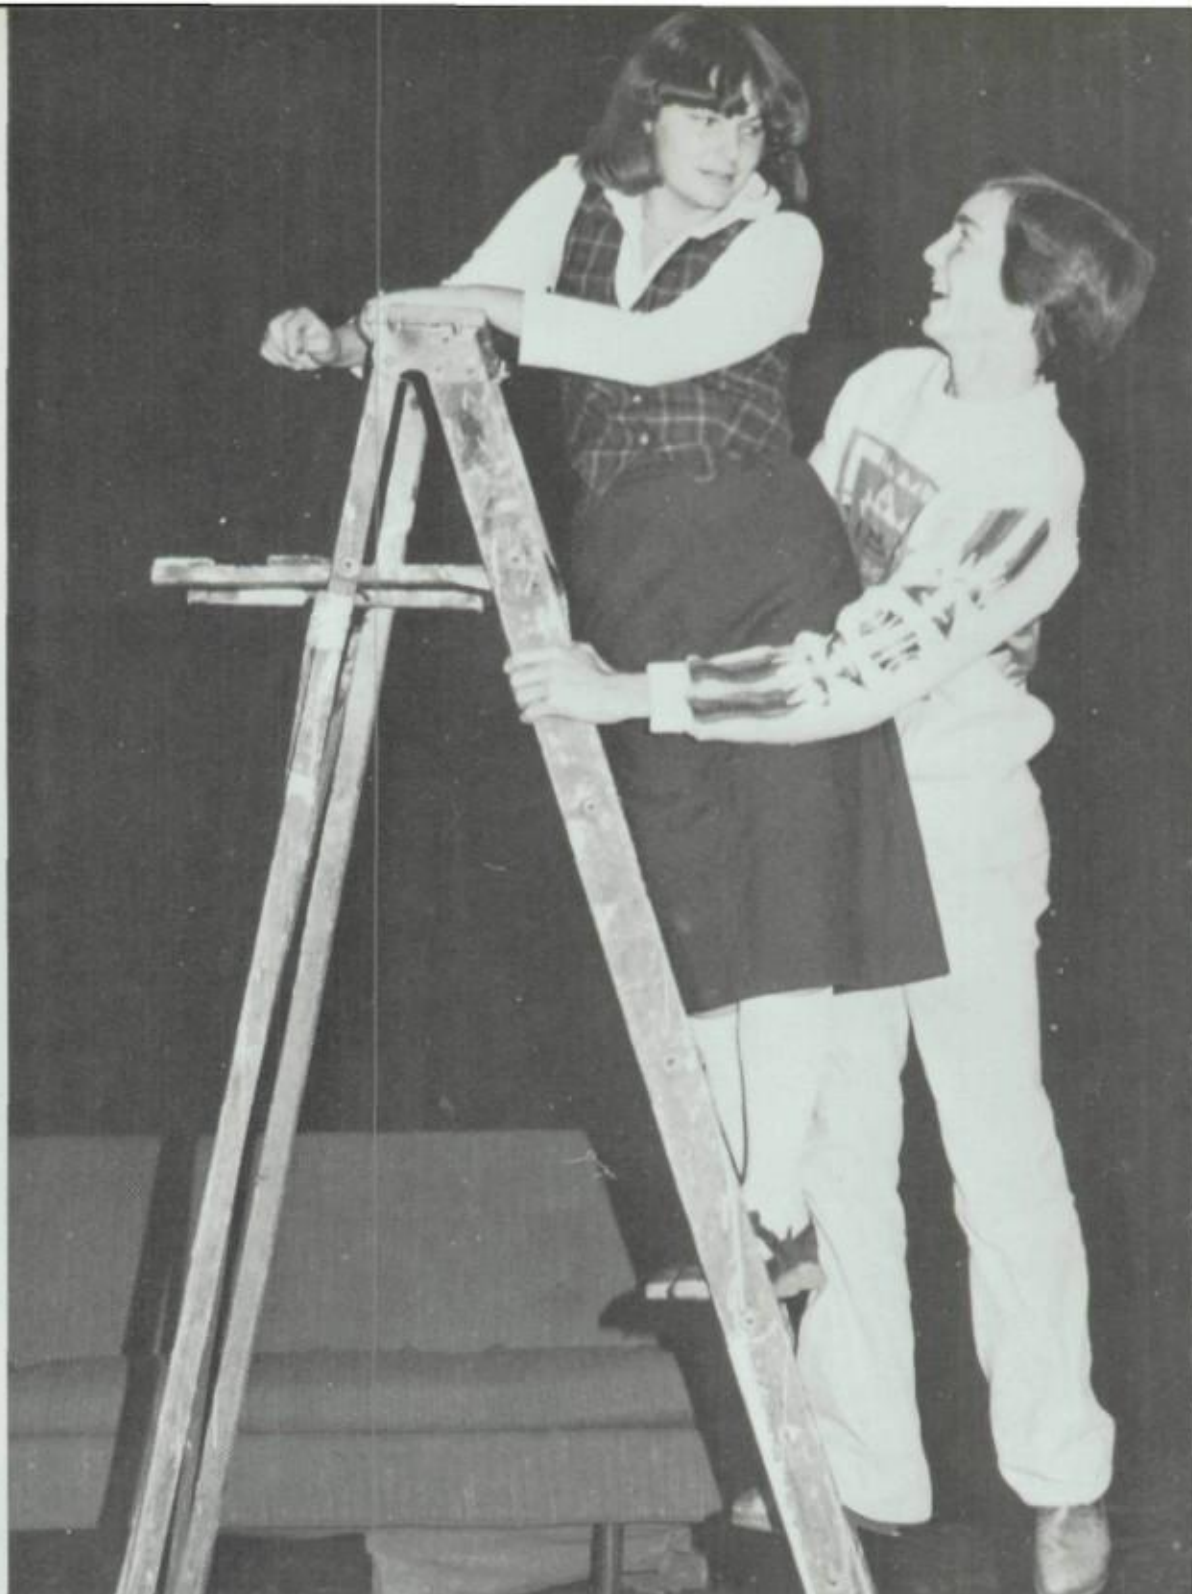

1. Tanya Ingwerson looks off stage for help with her lines.
 2. Paul Rogers saves Jan Warner from a near fall.
 3. Waiting for service at Macys' are Debbie Griskonis, Matt Shaker, Denise Nash, Greg Allen, Luci Howard, Allison Murray, Cris Benson, and Don Isbell.

4. Paul Rogers yells at Kevin Swanson and Tanya Ingerson.
 5. Tanya Ingerson drinks "southern comfort," as Robyn Cutler writes every word.
 6. For the first time Sara Owens takes Kevin Swanson to Mame's.
 7. Standing around the bar are Debbie Griskonis, Jeff Huntington, Matt Shaker, Greg Hodson, Paul Wackym, and Paula Gray.
 8. Don Isbell, Cris Benson, and Jeff Huntington "talk" at Mame's party.

Auntie Mame was a lot of long hard work. I remember all the beautiful people I met, plus the hours practicing for my disgusting burp!"

Katy Kahn

Auntie Mame was headed by a cast of characters such as Tanya Ingwerson who played Mame, Dave Bullock who played her short lived southern husband, Mame's nephew Patrick Dennis played by Kevin Swanson and others.

There were many people involved in the play, and it took just as many to build the sets, get props, and order costumes.

The play was very close to getting cancelled - back drops weren't painted, sets weren't built, but everything came together the week of the show.

It ended in a success though; many friends were made, many happy, and sad, tears were shed, and many people clapped their hands in the end.

Early in March the Drill Team put on their annual "Spring Show" production. "A Night Overseas" was the theme. Set designs for the gym, routines and costumes all carried out this idea. Continuing tradition the show opened with the Drill Team, Attached and Percussion units doing their "Spring" Parade March and closing with a finale with representation from each of the routines. The leaders, banners, tall flags and twirling flags all participated in their own routine.

To accomodate costume changes student body members performed in-between comedy and musical acts.

ACADEMICS

1. Mr. Tom Hart prepares to toss a stuffed animal to a student.
2. Below the Eiffel Tower Mrs. Roberta Jester discusses a french lesson with student teacher Miss Karen Zakzeski.
3. James Nelson recruits help in math from Miss Jean Kawoaka.

4. Amidst the papers on his desk, Mr. Brent Bailey grades tests.
5. Surrounded by confusion Mr. Richard Jackson straightens a sign trampled by hurried students.
6. Fifth period Sophomore English waits while Mrs. Evelyn Ching rewinds a tape recording.
7. Mr. Jim Zakzeski helps a member of the Oracle staff with her story.
8. Mr. Richard Jackson and Mr. Jim Dokos watch the end of a student pep assembly.

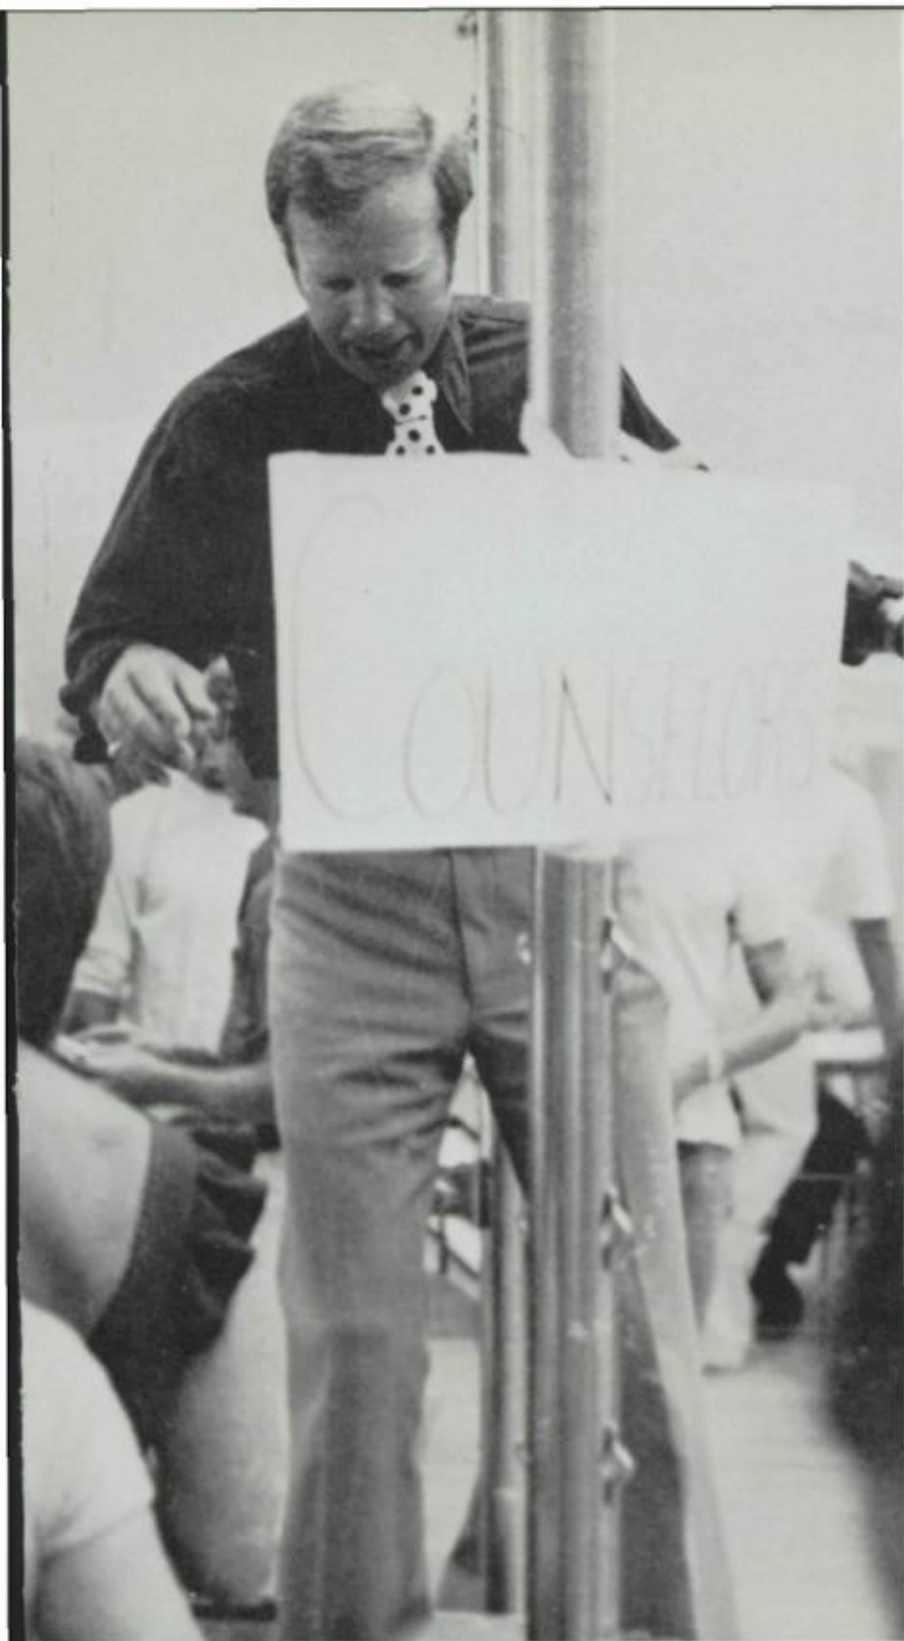

"It's been a busy year with a new attendance and registration policy. Most important is the accreditation report which will just verify the fine school and student body at VPHS."

Mr. Bud Davis

The faculty and administration began the year facing several changes. The most significant was the new 15-day absence policy. The teachers were to notify the counselors when a student obtained 5 absences in their class. The counselors in turn notify the parents. After 15 absences the student was dropped from the class, at the discretion of the teacher. The counselors not only had to handle excessive paper work involved with the absence procedure but devised a new system of registration. The administration, faculty and students worked together for VPHS accreditation survey.

1. By listening to Mrs. Karen Holt, Lisa Pizarro learns the requirements of Work Experience.
2. Mr. Frank Pangborn explains the many different areas of ROP (Regional Occupation Program) to Beth Williford.
3. Mrs. Betty Fisher and Jean Viau discuss second semester classes offered.

4. With Mr. Al Finlyson's help, Anita McGillivray signs up for her second semester class.
5. Mr. Keith Reid explains college admittance requirements to an unidentified student.
6. After discussing graduation requirements Mr. Bob Edwards schedules an appointment for Jim Dickinson.
7. Searching for a student's class schedule Mr. Bob Hummell looks through the many files in the SOC.
8. Mrs. Maryann Owsley teaches Karen Clemens how to find information in the SOC.

"We felt sophomores needed help in planning schedules that kept up with their goals, abilities, and interests."

Mr. Al Finlayson

Two new programs were initiated at VPHS involving the counselors. The first was a 15-day absence policy, which was directed from the district. The second program begun is called the Sophomore 3-Year-Plan. It calls for extensive counseling sessions with each sophomore regarding his entire high school career.

Work experience is a partnership between the community and school providing opportunities for students to discover their interests and aptitudes by doing "real work". The business community becomes the student's classroom.

As a school course the WE program provides grades and credit for the student who successfully completes the requirements of the program. The students are supervised and evaluated by their employers and the WE counselor, Mrs. Karen Vanaas Holt.

"People are people- times are different- we had the war, the draft, Nixon, etc. We were more socially aware than today's teenagers."

Mr. Rob Robinson

The faculty and administration of VPHS are a composition of very colorful, interesting individuals. These individuals are in turn composed of many experiences, opinions, and dreams.

One teacher Mrs. Zoe Gibbs didn't become a teacher until she had raised her six children. "I decided to do something with my brain. I thought I would be happy with my kids. Kids are a sort of specialty."

World History teacher Mr. Steve Garrahy spent this summer restoring his one hundred year old house located in Orange to its original condition.

Some teachers have taught under very interesting conditions. Mr. Dave Shelton, who also teaches World (cont. p. 125)

1. Mr. Jack Rowe lectures American Literature students on F. Scott Fitzgerald.
2. Demonstrating one of his many talents Mr. Rob Robinson plays an invisible guitar.
3. Senior history teacher, Mr. Dave White, lectures to his comparative Political Systems class.
4. Mrs. Marilyn Hettick explains dissection to Cindy Simmons.

5. During registration, Mr. Bud David signs necessary form for Kevin DeVito.
6. Using an overhead projector Mrs. Karen Moore teaches a shorthand lesson.
7. During break, Mr. John Meulmester opens a Christmas gift.
8. Mrs. Nancy Smith fills a magazine checkout form.

5. Mr. Russ Murphy displays his many teaching props with help from an unidentifiable student and Willie Williams.
6. Mrs. Joy Iseli signs an absence blank supplied by Lisa Nelson.
7. Mrs. Barbara Kurek and Mrs. Gail Hanger review student spirit at a pep assembly.
8. During lunch Mr. Steve Garrahy and Miss Karen Whitaker discuss plans.

"I don't allow failure- one has to ignore themselves to fail."

Mr. Ray Schutte

History taught at Juvenile Hall last year. He taught a variety of subjects such as science, math, Driver's Education as well as history.

Miss Joy Iseli acquired enough units to attain her counseling certificate. In order to do this she attended several sociology and psychology classes. These subjects were not only helpful in acquiring her certificate but were personally rewarding as well. Miss Iseli states, "Personal growth and awareness are avenues for me to explore in order to discover more about myself, my life, and others."

Senior History teacher Mr. Dave White spends much of his spare time running in distance races around the state.

Mr. John Meulmester lives on an isolated farm and raises much of his own food. He grows his own vegetables and fruit, not to mention raising cattle, hogs and horses.

It was the diversity of background that enriched the learning experience at Villa Park.

Early in the year the Odyssey placed questionnaires in the faculty's mailboxes asking about the teachers' personal lives, views on education and comments on world situations. The following quotes are some of the more interesting views expressed.

Don Thompson

"ERA? They are all nice letters. I use them frequently."

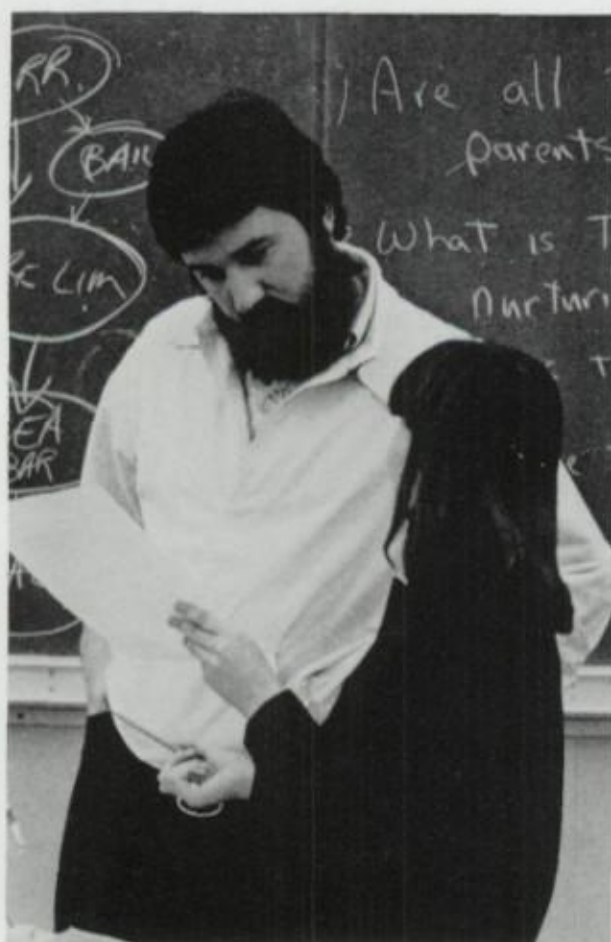

"Too many people are hooked on television. It is not good for kids to watch extensively at the expense of other activities."

Mark Sanders

"Teenagers today seem to know where they're headed in life (i.e., career), but little about what is expected of them or who they are."

"My biggest accomplishment since leaving high school is developing a philosophy of life."

▼ Dave Lawrence

Ray Schutte

"Teenagers today have similar growing up problems but are not as knowledge oriented as I was."

"Television will change us in time just as the printing press did."

Debi Craib

"Teenagers today are more worldly and have more responsibilities than just going to school."

"TA, TM, and EST have all caught my eye as a passing fancy. My B.A. is in psychology and it will always be my first love. Anything that helps people feel good about themselves is good."

Evelyn Ching

"I love my job, my home and my husband. I love some good friends, and I can ignore my enemies."

Ted Mullen

"My biggest accomplishment since leaving high school is having a continuing marriage for twenty years."

"I think the 15-day absence policy improves attendance."

Phil Thoner

"Feeling has little to do with education; thinking has to do with education."

▲ Phil Thoner

"A human being is a human being is a human being- promotion, attention, and/or recognition should be based on talent, intelligence and ability."

Dave Lawrence

"My biggest accomplishment since leaving high school would be educating myself, putting myself through college and proving to myself that I can accomplish anything I choose to undertake."

"I think a subject should be taught that would prepare high school students on how to cope with our ever-changing technological society and mass population, also how to make cooperative efforts in getting along with others."

"In all my classes combined- very few students fail. Usually it's only those who choose to fail by either attendance or who just close door to any outside information, which might help develop them into specialized being."

the future I feel education will and more from all sides (students, teachers, administrators) to reorganize available courses to meet everyone's individual needs, especially the students."

There will be increased emphasis on basics to insure that those leaving institution can function, making decisions, and problem solve when they leave. I also perceive a "graduation" test which will be required in order to receive a diploma."

I am satisfied with my life at the present. As long as there is constant change with the everyday situation involved with, and as long as I make positive efforts to improve myself and the work I do."

When I'm not teaching at Villa Park I'd like to go on an adventure. I have a desire to go back many parts of the Sierras, hike, shoot the river rapids in a man raft on a hot summer day, follow an old fantasy, "sell my soul" and crew on a sailboat in the South Seas. Vocationally I would like very much to become involved in Urban Planning, Environmental Design,

I grew up at a small Junior College and lived there ever after in a dome house on the cliffs of Big Sur."

Teachers Answer Poll

"Today's teenagers are much more aware of life and what it has to offer. Teens today are developing mentally and physically earlier in life to help make an easier transition from teenage to adulthood, preparation for the New Millennium I suppose."

Gail Hanger

"TV creates insensitivity to violence, etc., and more non-readers."

Greg Benoit

"The most dire political situation in the world today is world hunger and political power struggles which prevent its eradication."

▼ Norm Johnson

▲ Debi Craib

Alberta Wormdahl

"My biggest accomplishment since leaving high school is becoming a professional in a tight job market."

"I truly feel student government can be dynamic. Improving one's own "situation" should concern all students."

Dom Corradino

"Life is like that proverbial glass. It's either half full or half empty-mine has always been half full."

"A good performance must have the dedication of every performer and enthusiasm throughout all the rehearsals and performances."

Mrs. Anne Folkert

Many classes at VPHS are geared to performing. Such subjects as art, drama, music, dance, journalism, or any sport require a good performance or production.

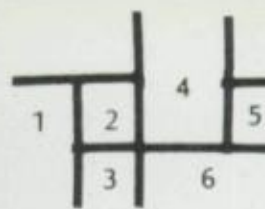

Several performers and performances came to VPHS year. The advanced drama class performed Bye Bye Birdie for the local junior highs under the direction of Mrs. Al Wormdahl.

First period dance choreography performed their annual production. The production was choreographed by the students under the watchful eye of Mrs. Anne Folkert.

Mr. Ron Browne's fifth period guitar class spent much of their time practicing. They were a familiar sight sitting outside R-2 daily.

1. Mrs. Anne Folkert gracefully demonstrates a dance step for her Dance/Choreography/Production class.

2. At poolside Coach Jeff Erlich suggests a new strategy for the upcoming period.

3. Mr. Norm Johnson signs a supply request for Cris Benson.

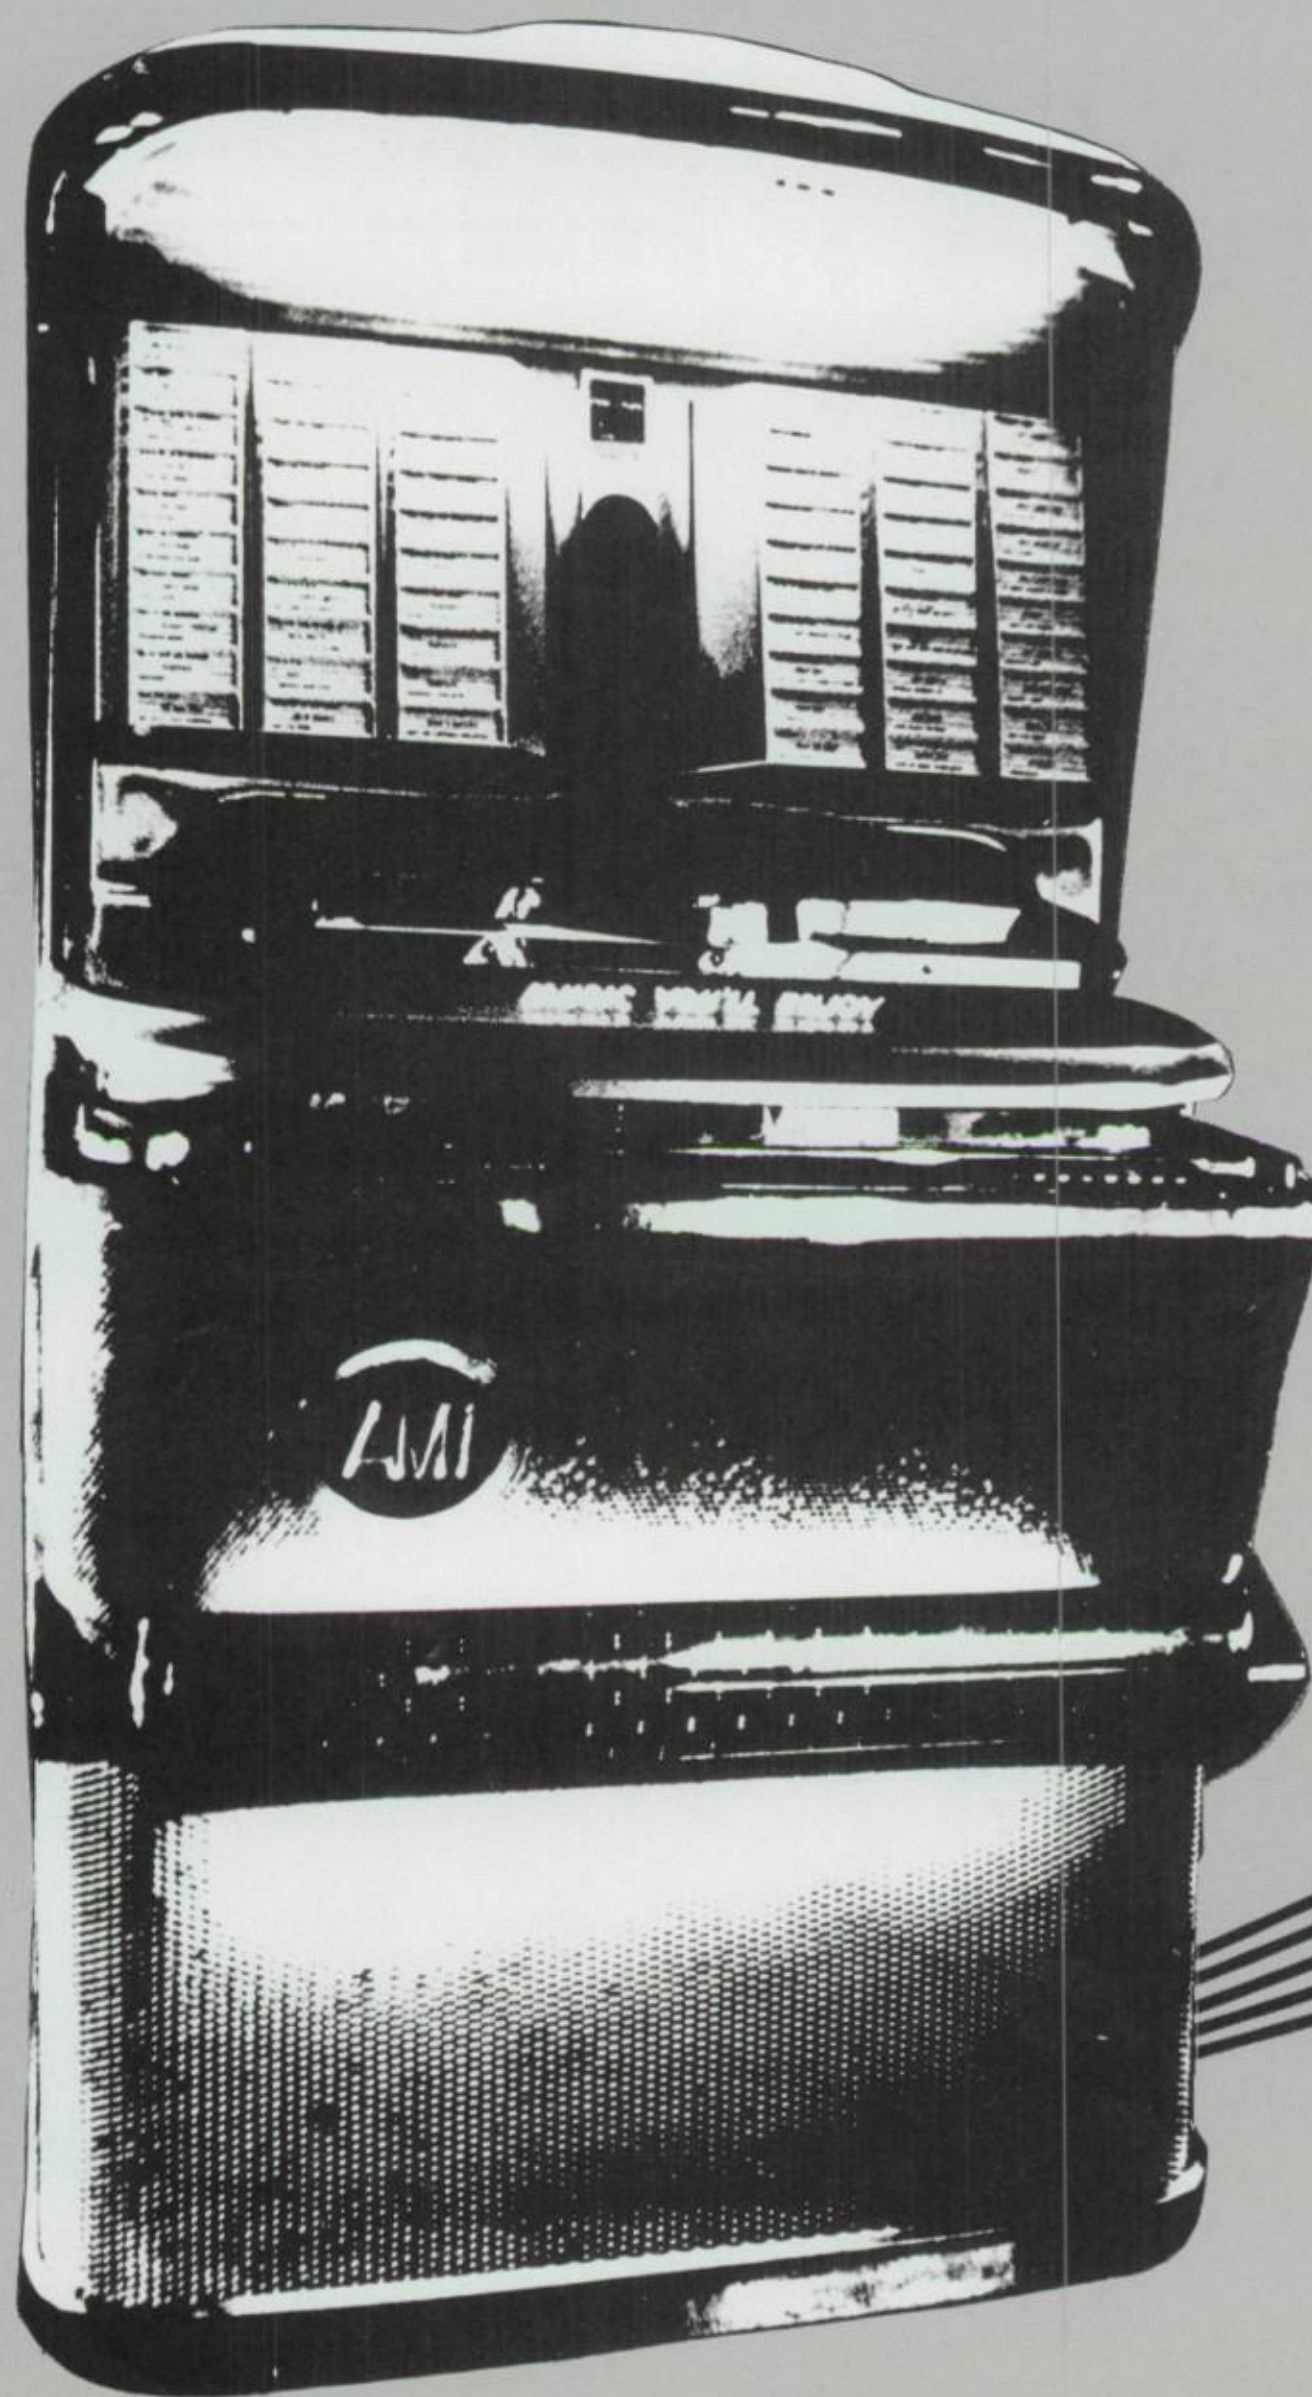

4. Smiling at Debbie Griskonis' full cart of wardrobe Mrs. Alberta Wormdahl and Mr. King decide on a parking place.

5. Mr. Myron Hittinger conducts the Marching Spartans at a football game.

6. Mr. Ron Browne leads around-circle critique of guitar music.

"Football is a personal Goal and a way of life" Kirk Springe

Now sharing 2nd place in the century league with the Foothill Knights, the Spartan machine met their counterpart, at Fred Kelly. The defensive front four and linebackers played more aggressively than usual. The game ended 25-8. In the last regular game of the season VPHS clinched a spot for the CIF playoffs by defeating Orange 17-0. The Orange game was VPHS's Homecoming. The Spartans were held scoreless throughout the first three quarters, until a 25 yard touchdown pass from Steve Brown to Arnold Thomas sparked the Spartans. Then on the next offensive series another touchdown pass was thrown from Steve Brown to Todd Litman, who made a spectacular end zone catch.

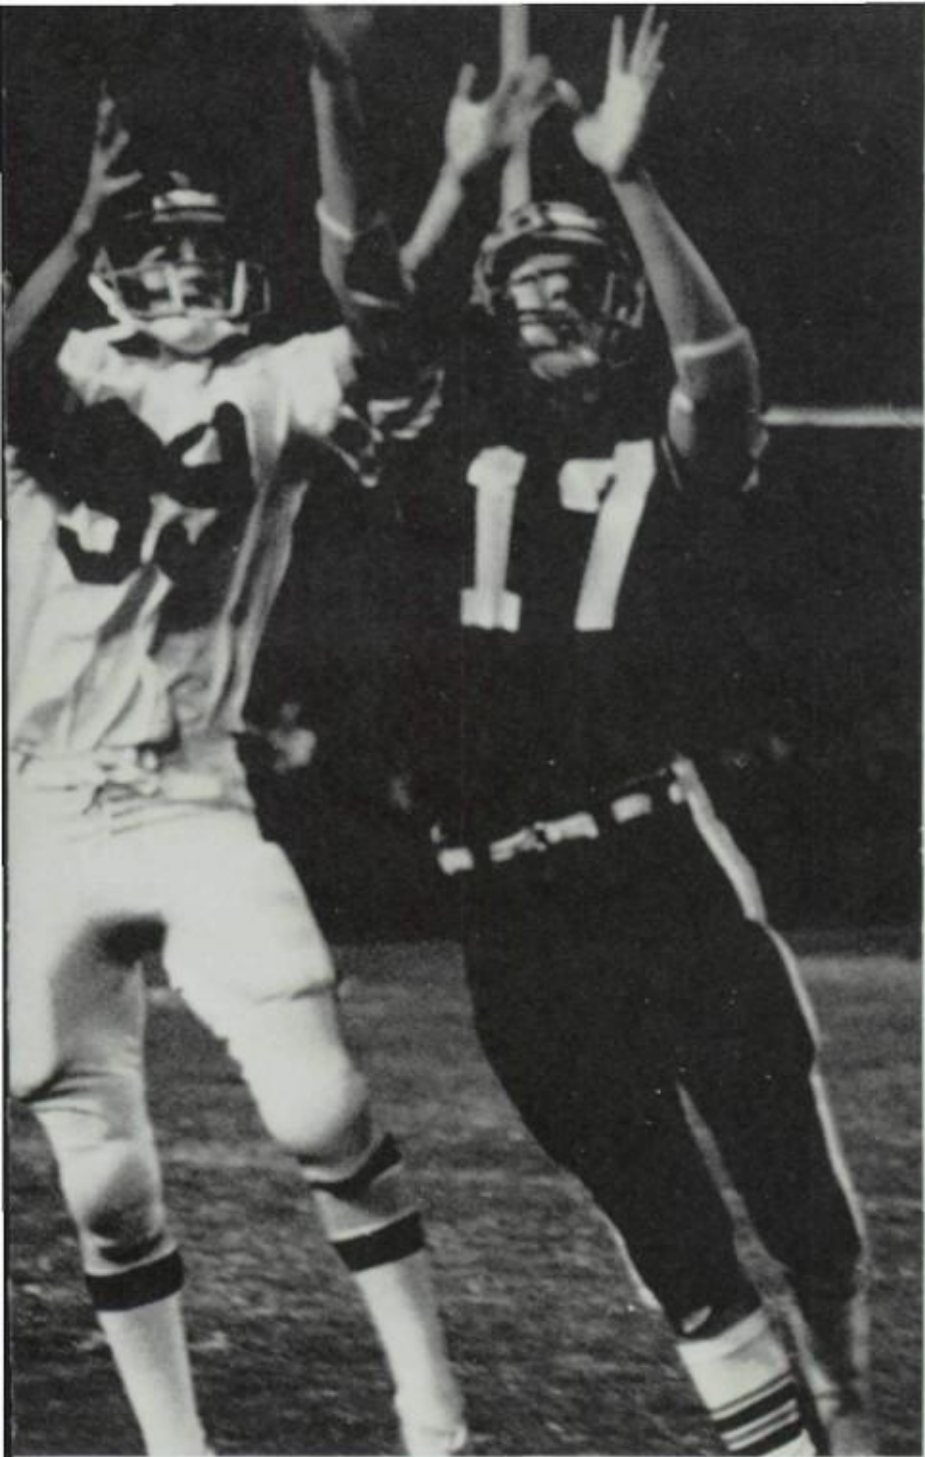

Entering the CIF playoffs for the fifth consecutive year the Spartans won the first round over Arlington 31-6. After establishing a lead, head-coach Ted Mullen, played the sophomore offense and the J.V. defense for the majority of the second half.

In the second round the Spartans faced the Savana Rebels from the Freeway league. The Spartans struck first with a tight end counter to Todd Litman. Early in the third quarter Steve Brown scored on a sweep to make the score 14-0. Savana snapped back by scoring on a run. Mark Kahn put away the game with two outstanding runs. He rushed for 253 yards.

Their ultimate goal of winning the championship, was well on way as the Spartans moved through their third game of the playoffs defeating Riverside Poly 14-6. The touchdowns were both passes from Steve Brown to Joe Gouveia and Todd Litman.

"Being a part of the varsity football team, I remember my touchdown against Valley ... I think?

Todd Litman

Coached by Ted Mullen, VPHS entered the 1977 football season as one of the strongest teams in VPHS's history. The Spartans came with their teeth gritted and strong determination.

They set the tone in their first game against Katella defeating them 22-7. The following game was against one of their top two rivals, Canyon. The Spartans totally dominated the gridiron putting all their talent together. With Mark Kahn grinding out the yards and blowing open holes for the strong tailback Art Reisman, the final score was a crushing 36-7.

VPHS third game was played at the Santa Ana Bowl against the Santa Ana Saints. The Spartans again playing tough football pulled off another victory, winning 19-8. With tough running by Mark Kahn and fine quarterbacking by the young junior Steve Brown, the Spartans rolled to a shut out defeating Tustin 21-0.

The Spartans next battle was against the Santa Ana Valley Falcons. This classic game was an event well played. Valley was the first team to score by getting a safety in the first quarter. Then in the second quarter the Falcons scored their first and last touchdown on a 37-yard run. With the score 9-0 in the third quarter the Spartan offense struck back with a pass from Steve Brown to tightend Todd Litman. Unfortunately time ran out and the game ended 9-7 Valley.

Going into the sixth week of the season the 3-1 VPHS team played 3-1 Estancia. With outstanding play by the Spartan defense, Estancia never managed to get their offense together, chalking up another shutout for the Spartans, 21-0.

1. Linebacker Kirk Springe and defensive back Kelle Baitx combine their efforts to tackle an El Modena running back.

2. Jeff Bieller and Jeff Carter pressure the El Modena quarterback.

3. The official signals a touchdown by Art Reisman against Foothill, leading to a 25-8 Spartan victory.

4. With nine seconds left in the game, and a one point defecit against Modena, Klecak kicked the winning field goal as the team rejoiced.

The sophomore football team won their league with a 7-2 record. Despite losing their first two non-league games against Katella and Canyon, the sophomores came back strong for their regular season, going undefeated 7-0.

Under the leadership of Russ (Dog) Murphy the team played with togetherness and spirit.

The sophomores were led by the running of Mark Ehlers, John German, and Matt Fredrickson, quarterbacking by Shawn Buckle.

A large part of the team is expected to return next year and provide excellent material for the 1978-1979 varsity team.

1. Coach Tim Owens watches the defense as coach Russ (Dog) Murphy instructs quarterback Shawn Buckle.
2. Quarterback Shawn Buckle throws, and completes a pass against Tustin.
3. Mark Ehlers drives for a small gain.
4. Matt Fredrickson runs the ball for a 12 yard gain against Tustin.
5. Shawn Buckle barks out the signals for the offense.
6. John German looks for a hole in Estancias defensive line.

After receiving a pass from the quarterback Shawn Buckle, John Rose makes a first down.

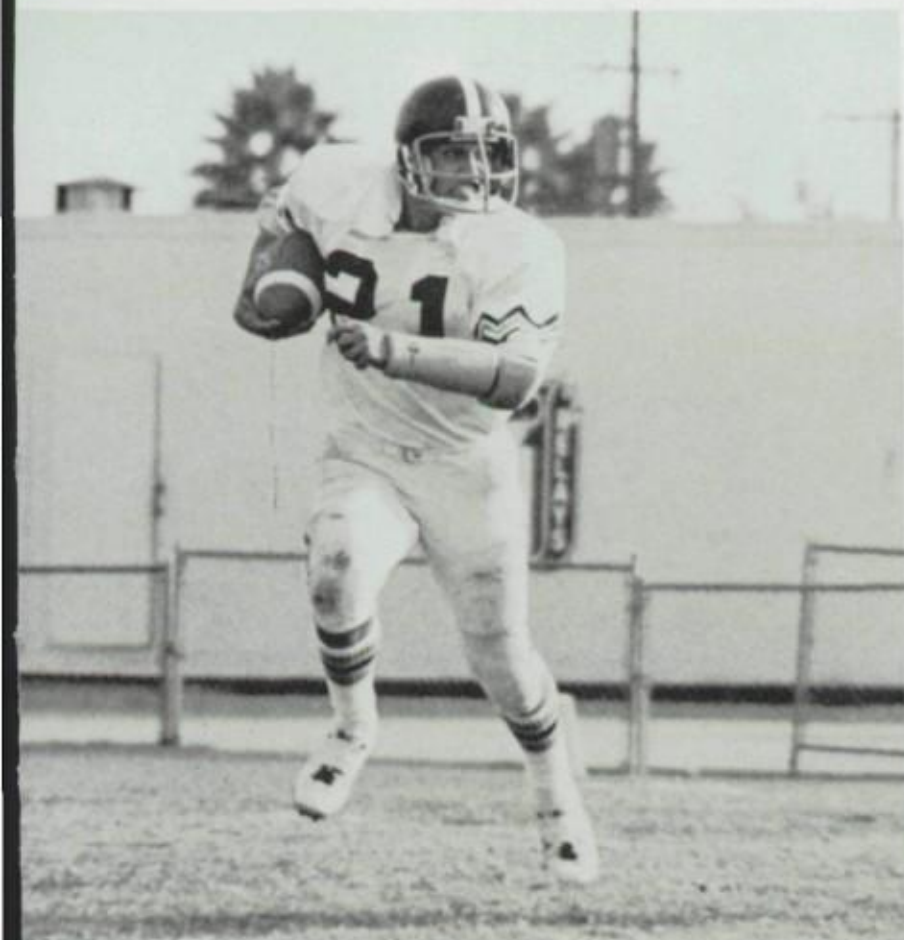

Spartan defenders close in on opposition.

Mark Ehlers kicks off for the sophomore team.

Offensive team huddles as Shawn Buckle calls the play.

5. Larry Harmier passes toward the goal.
6. Larry Harmier swims furiously to position himself for a pass.
7. Doug Kimbell struggles to maintain control as an Estancia player gets excessively rough.

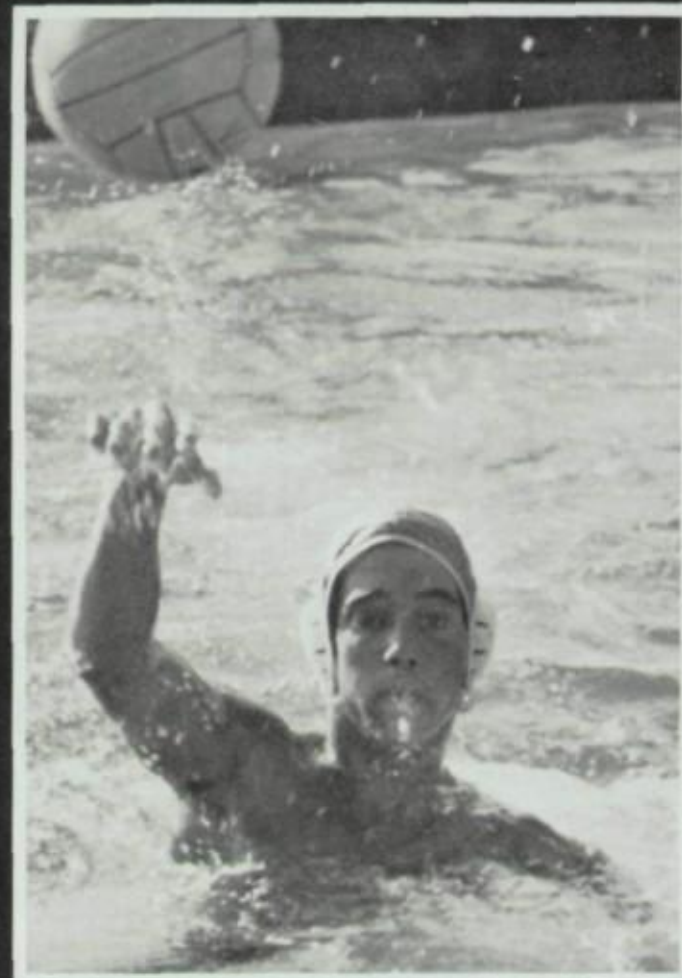

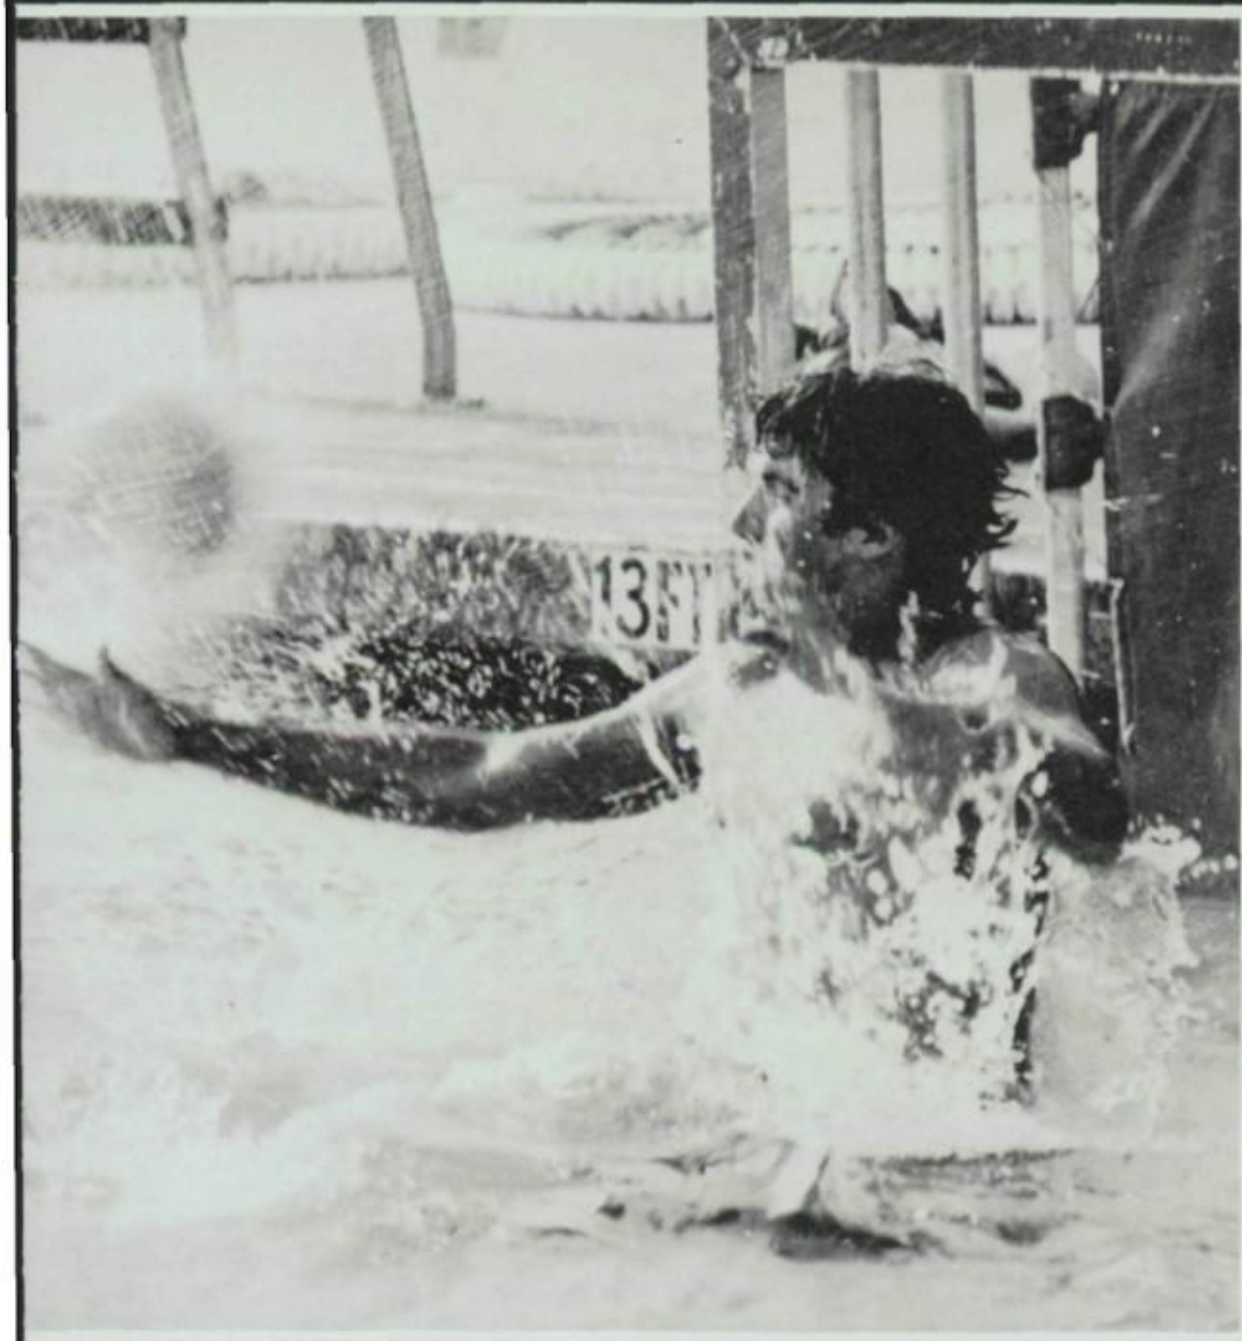

The varsity waterpolo team was victory bound from the start of the season. They played thirty games in competition and finished 18-1 in league play. In all, the team played over 100 games. They finished 8th in the C.I.F. playoffs.

"We played against college teams during the summer before school started. Playing better teams is the only way to improve," explained coach Jeff Ehrlich.

"The toughest game," explained Marc Horwitz, "was against Estancia." There were two overtimes, then finally Mark Cornett put the winning goal in to win 17-16.

"We had a winning season because we didn't worry about the score."

Dennis Mohle

1977 was the first season for the Sophomore water polo B team to win the league championship. They went to the C.I.F. playoffs undefeated, 7-0, in league play.

Sophomore coach Jeff Woods said, "the guys took a lot of pride in winning."

"We even had three players who started during the season who had never played water polo before, Ian Haskins, Perry Viscounty, and Doug Christensen." Woods continued, "I enjoyed coaching them all."

1. Coach Erlich explains strategy to his players during a short break in the action.
2. Mark Cornett and Dennis Mohle closely guard a Foothill player.
3. Jim Balok kicks quickly backwards to avoid being blocked.

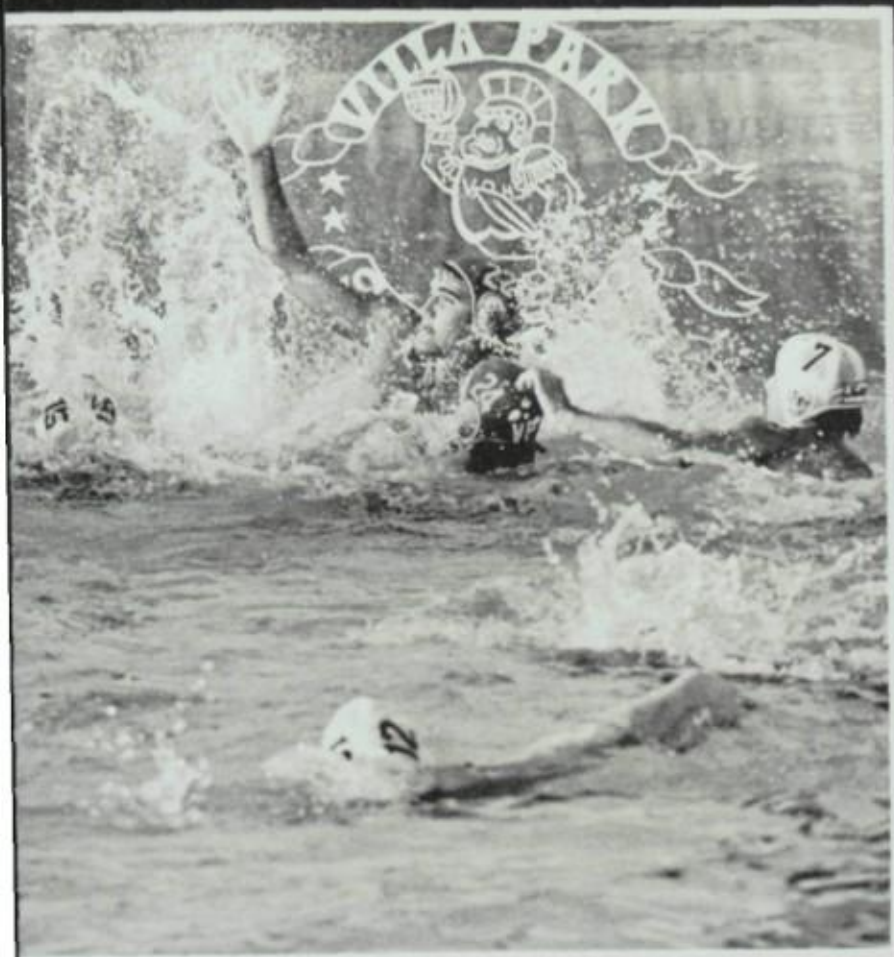

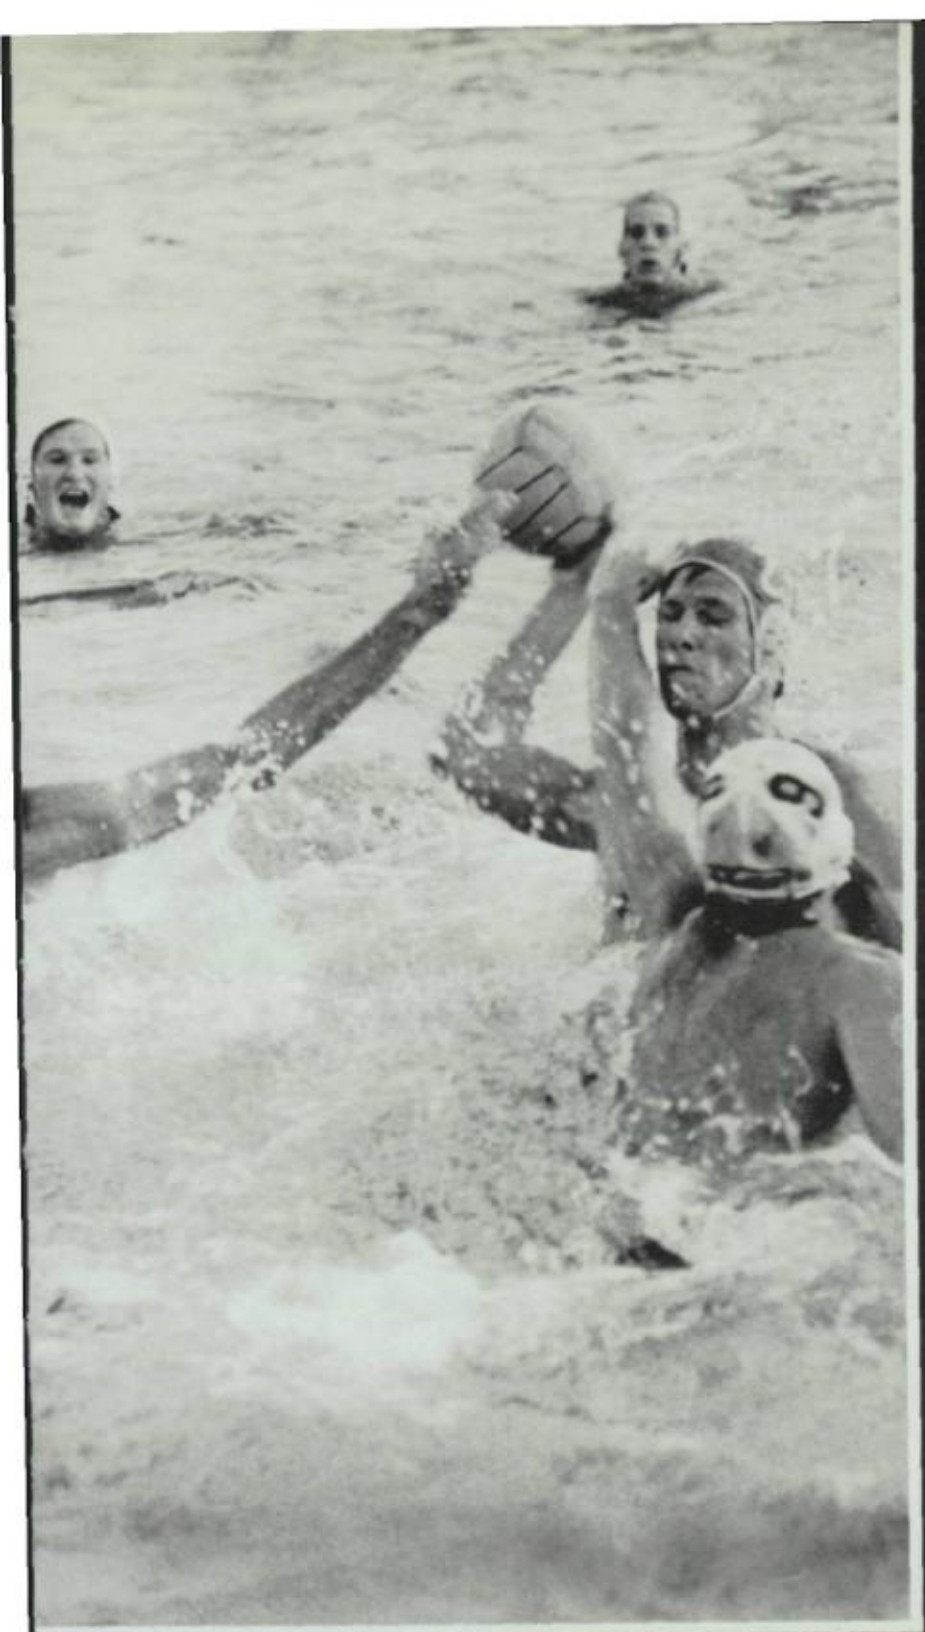

"We play waterpolo for the fun of it, not only to win."

Ian Haskins

4. Doug Kimball struggles to maintain control of the ball as he is blocked by two Foothill players.
5. Rick Longyear carries the ball toward the goal.
6. Brian Mason, goalie, guards against an onslaught.
7. The team listens pensively to sideline coaching by Sophomore coach Jeff Woods.

1. Tim Woodward darts toward the finish.
2. Tim Doering strids for a finish.
3. Mike Fisher tires as he comes up on the finish.
4. Paul Gianntakis,

8. Eric Freidenreich struggles around corner.

The cross country team finished the season with low scores. Cross country is scored by points being assigned to the place the runner finishes. A low score wins the meet.

The team was coached by Dave White who celebrated his fourth season coaching the runners. Returning lettermen were Tim Woodward, and Roger Sorensen.

During the year the team ran against many other schools including Orange, El Modena, and Santa Ana Valley. One of the most interesting meets was said to be the Buena Pa Invitational. Runners race around track once then through a field and around the school. At the end of race, instead of going over a finish line they ran into a big cone. Only one runner can go through at one time. Villa Park finished the meet scoring first for varsity, second for sophomore, and third for junior varsity.

"I keep telling myself give 'em a good race I want to run my best and my hardest."

Dave Congelosi

The girls cross country team coached by Krisa Baylor, ran for their first year, all though Miss Baylor has been running for five years on her own. This being the first year of cross country, instead of breaking school records, the team set them. The best time was set by Lana Dalberg. It was thirteen minutes and thirty four seconds!

When asked how he felt about the meet at the Bue Park Invitational Carl Boatright commented, "I feel I could have done better if I had stayed up at the beginning."

 3. Robin Dill jumps high in the air to spike the ball against Estancia.

While there is a break in play, Coach Jan Standlee gives instructions to her team. 5. The Odyssey staff catches the motions of Robin Dill as she dives for the ball to save a point. 6. In the El Modena match Jodi Mullen bumps the ball up high for a spike set up. 7. Setting up the ball for a winner, Robin Meyer is watched by teammates Sandy Papas and Jodi Mullen. 8. Putting her all into a bump, Linda Zigich leaps in the air to make a set-up for a spike.

Varsity volleyball finished at 7-7, fourth place, but better than last year's 0-14 record.

"We could have done better, but we have improved greatly since the start of the season," stated Jodi Mullen.

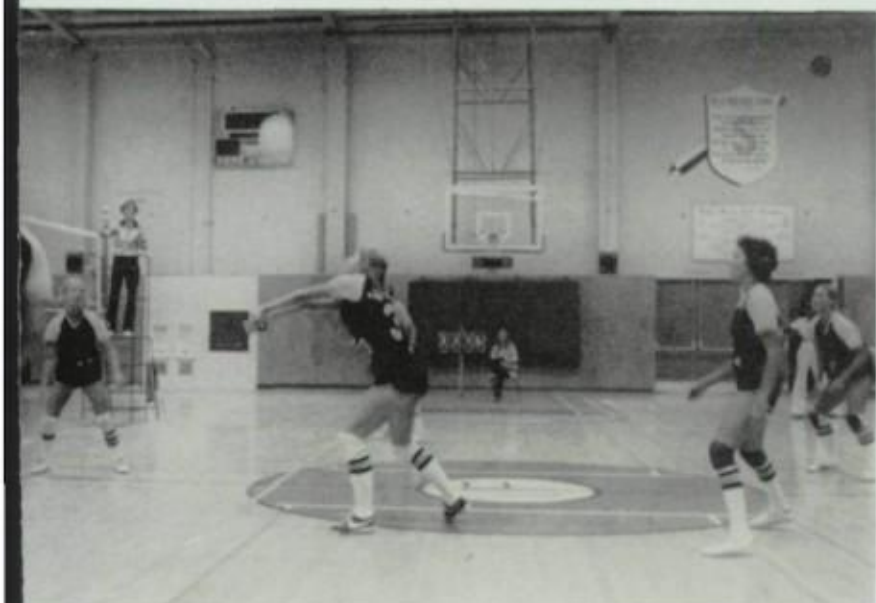

Coach Jan Standlea commented, "They were very coachable girls and we all got along very good."

The Junior Varsity team tied Estancia for second, ending the season at 10-4.

"We spent a lot of hours working to do as well as we did. I'm glad I worked as hard as I did, and I know everyone feels the same as I do," commented Lori Simmons.

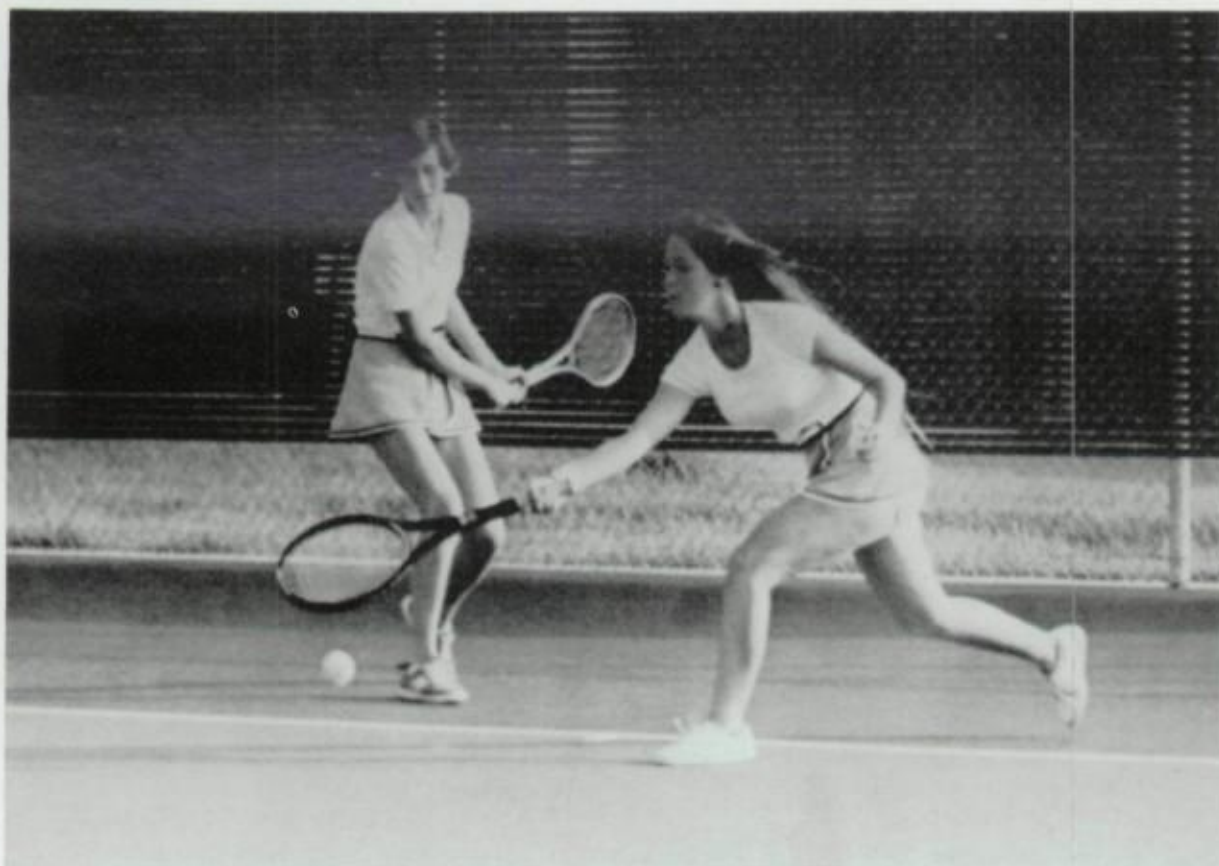

"I learned how to work as part of a team rather than an individual."

Jeni Wong

led by coach Nancy Grant, the girls tennis team had one of its best years this year. Strengthened by 7 newcomers, Becky Reed, Linda Nordhausen, June Ponce, Cindy Abdalla, Linda Joy, Jeanine Lewis and Meg Matsui. The team posted a winning record. Becky Reed, voted M.V.P. by her teammates, continued on into CIF competition. Other returning varsity members such as Jeni Wong, Kris McKinnon, and Colette Klima, lead the varsity on its winning season.

"I had a lot of fun on the team this year, because we were more than just a team, we were really good friends."

1. Cindy Abdalla returns a lob in practice.
2. Julie Trueblood uses her backhand to return a serve.
3. Jeni Wong drives a two-fisted backhand back to an Orange opponent.
4. Against Tustin, June Gibson smacks a forehand

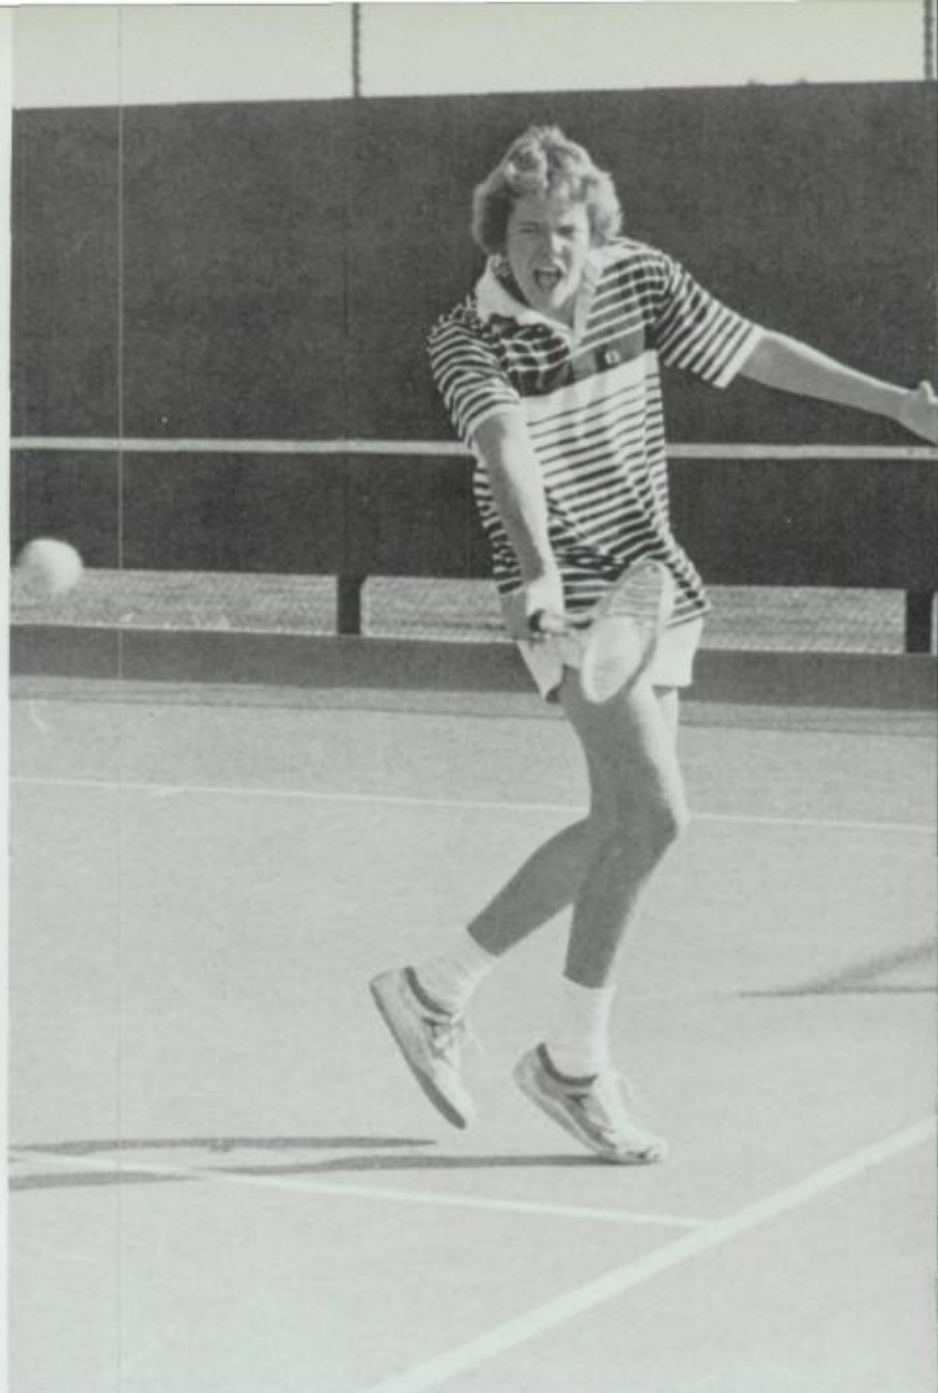

Kevin Jones slams a serve to the forehand corner.

John Abouchar

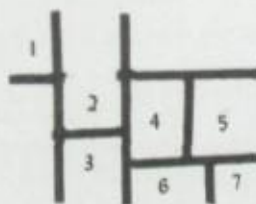

The Varsity tennis team, lead by Veteran-tennis coach Ron Metcalf, came up with a successful team. Returning varsity letterman Phil Abdalla, Mike Grant, Kevin Jones, Skip Oades, and Glen Woodworth helped the team to their success. The young, promising sophomore's were Doug Matthews and Jeff Hunter. The main ingredient to their season was their fine talent and togetherness.

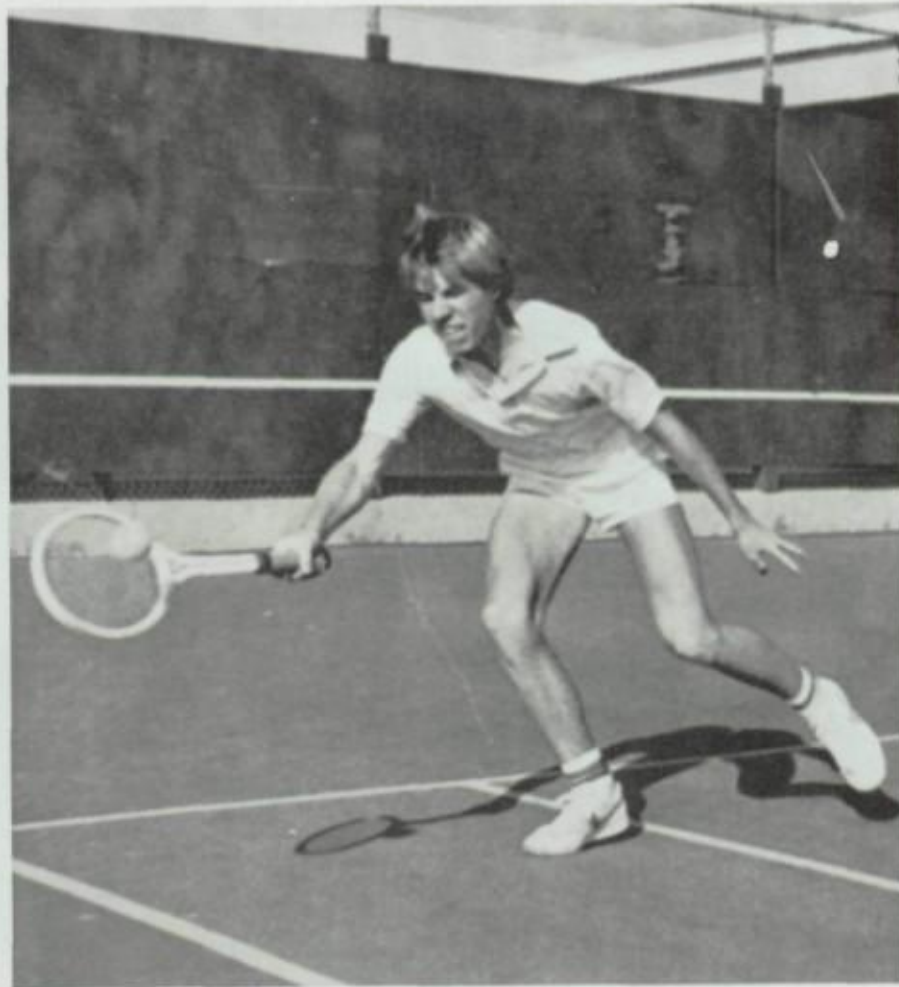

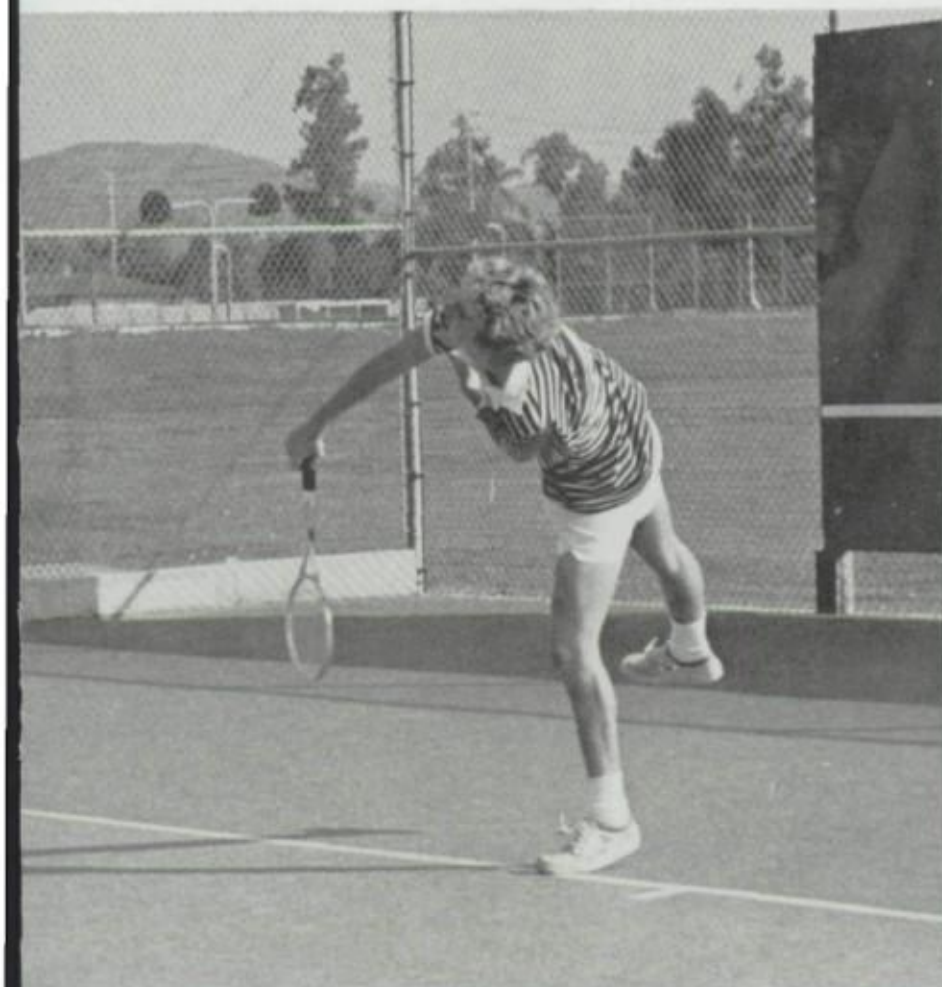

1. Kevin Jones surges to the net for a return.
2. Doug Matthews expresses his backhand on a return.
3. Playing the net is one of Phil Abdalla's specialties.
4. Playing singles against Estancia, Doug Matthews displays his serve.
5. Mike Grant stretches for a return lob.
6. Jeff Hunter reaches low for a backhand volley.
7. Back deep in the court, Phil Abdalla returns an El Modena serve.

 5. Judy Riley and Lisa Ray guard in the back Becky Helme fights for the ball.
 6. Lynn McBride runs to the ball as Suzy Ray readies to relay it into the net.
 7. Robin Mayer waits to block a shot against Canyon, while other players ready to take it the net.

Girls Field Hockey is similar to ice hockey. It is played on grass, using a ball and sticks.

The Field Hockey team was under the leadership of coaches Stephanie Papas and Sue Loverski.

The Junior Varsity team is expected to supply the varsity with talent that could well lead them into the championships next year.

Some of the schools played were El Modena, Tustin, Santa Ana, Orange, and Canyon. In the pre-league games the team had a score of five wins, one tie, and one loss.

The girls had difficult time after Christmas because of rain and the fact that field hockey and basketball were scheduled at the same time. Many girls were in both and were tired and worn being drawn between both sports.

The team suffered many injuries this season radically cutting team size and eliminating two good players Lisa Morgosh, and Robin Mayer.

"The mud was the best part of the season."

We never had to depend on any one person because we had a well rounded team."

Rick Wearda

The 1977-78 Varsity basketball season was a long and hard one. The team started off in pre-season with a 1st place win over California High School in the Laguna Beach tournament.

"It was tough; they pressured us throughout the whole game. We only won by one point," stated Rick Wearda. Early in the regular season the team lost to El Modena. "That was a bad loss. We were up by six at half-time, then went on to lose in over-time. If we had won the game we would have been tied for 1st. As it went, we were then in a four way tie for 4th place," explained Chris Jacobs. "In all the games we lost, the score was very close, or the game was closer than the score indicated," remarked Jeff Noble. (cont. p. 186)

"Even though the team had its ups and downs, it never stopped having a winning attitude."

Coach Lindsay

"When we did win, it felt great. Beating Santa Ana was a great way to start off the season. 'In your face, Saints,' (which is what a player says when he makes a 20 footer over someone who is guarding you very closely)."

explained Mark Garvin, "I wish the whole season would have been like that."

"The team has a lot of talent, but we just couldn't get everything together," commented Coach Ron Lindsay, "every player had his own strong point. Bruce Freeman has a lot of potential, Keith Kemper has hustle, Jeff Noble has desire, and Matt Kahn is a team player who is always willing to help out in any way possible."

1. Looking determined, Bruce Freeman attempts a free throw.
2. Scott Shattuck attempts his freethrow as the players get ready for the possible rebound.
3. During the Estancia game, Chris Jacobs dribbles past his opponent.
4. At the start of the fourth quarter Jeff Noble wins the tip against the player from Loara.
5. Jeff Noble takes a shot during the Estancia game.
6. Everything stops while Mark Garvin asks the ref what happened.
7. Keith Kemper, ready to attempt a shot, scores against a helpless Loara defender.

"When we won, we won because we had a well-balanced team."

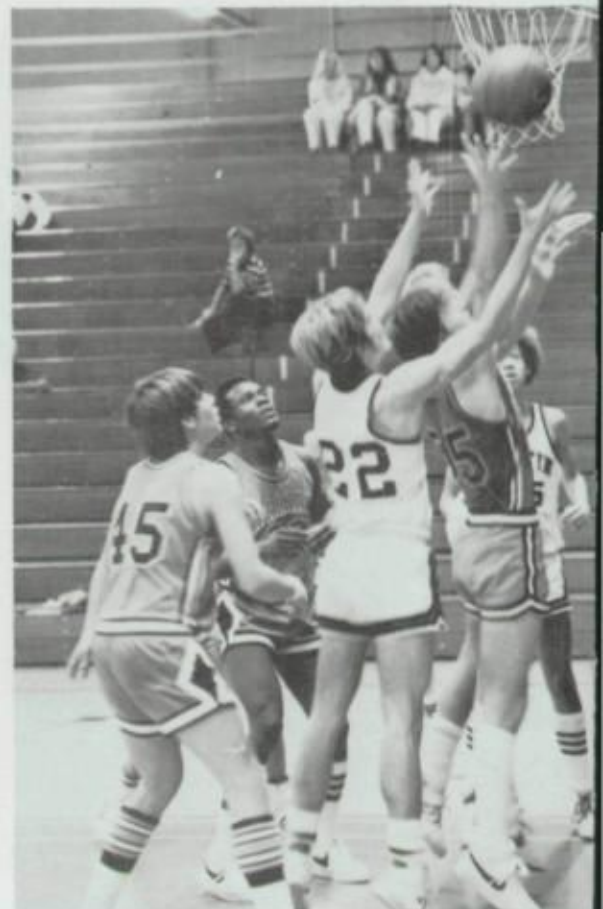

Jeff Carter.

The Junior Varsity team took 3rd in league with a 9-5 record.

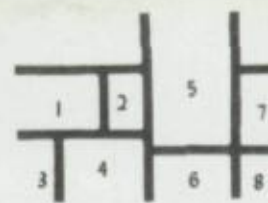

"We had a lot of potential that was never used to the fullest in some of the games," commented Rob Moore.

"The team has a lot of depth," explained coach Tim Owens, "Arnold Thomas, Brad Patrick and Rob Hunter had over 130 rebounds in the league. Jeff Carter and Jorge Caucas were the best defensively with Craig Bryant and Brad Patrick being pure shooters, a person who shoots well from outside the key."

"I enjoyed coaching a lot, but I have to admit the funnest thing is making jokes with the referees."

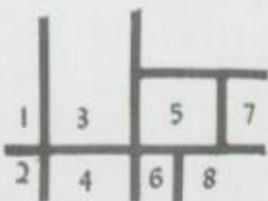

1. Phil Hotchkiss drives around an Orange defender trying to start a fast break.
2. With inside position, Rob Hunter attempts to tip up missed shot.
3. Closely guarded by a Tustin player, Jorge Caucas crosses the center line.
4. Trailing, the Soph-J.V. team lead by Bill Shirley, clasp hands before attempting to regain the lead.
5. Craig Bryant pumps the ball while everyone else battles for rebound position.
6. Jeff Behnke decides whether to pass or take a shot.
7. An Orange player futilely attempts to stop Larry Boyd from scoring an easy lay-up.
8. Mark Ehlers whips a pass down court after a defensive rebound.

1. Concentrating intently, Brad Patrick makes the second of two free throws.

2. Rob Moore leaps above an Orange player and cans an eight footer.

3. Virtually unguarded, Aaron Broadway shoots a quick jump shot from the lane.

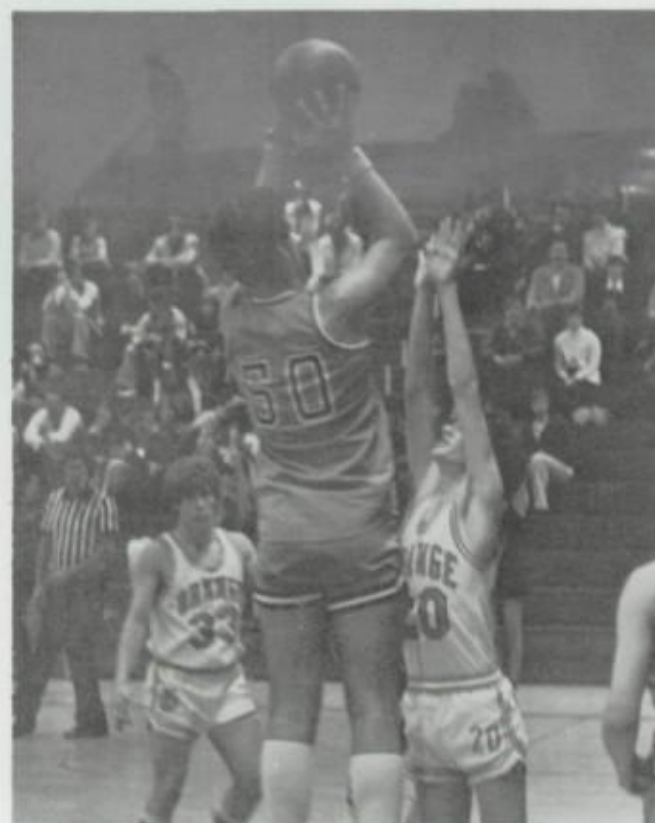

4. Mark Ehlers is outjumped by Orange center at start of third quarter. V.P.H.S. went on to easily win.

5. Ken Koiter reaches in to knock away an Orange rebound.

6. Against man to man pressure, Ron Kempton waits for a teammate to break free under the basket.

7. After drawing the defensive to him, Arnold Thomas dishes off to a teammate for an easy two.

8. Jeff Vigil, #35, holds up fast break, waiting for Center Chuck Telk to get into position.

at games it's a switch with more people who watch us play than at Jr. High. It gives you a good feeling and you play better."

Mike Capps

The Sophomore Varsity won more than half of their games ending with a 9-5 record.

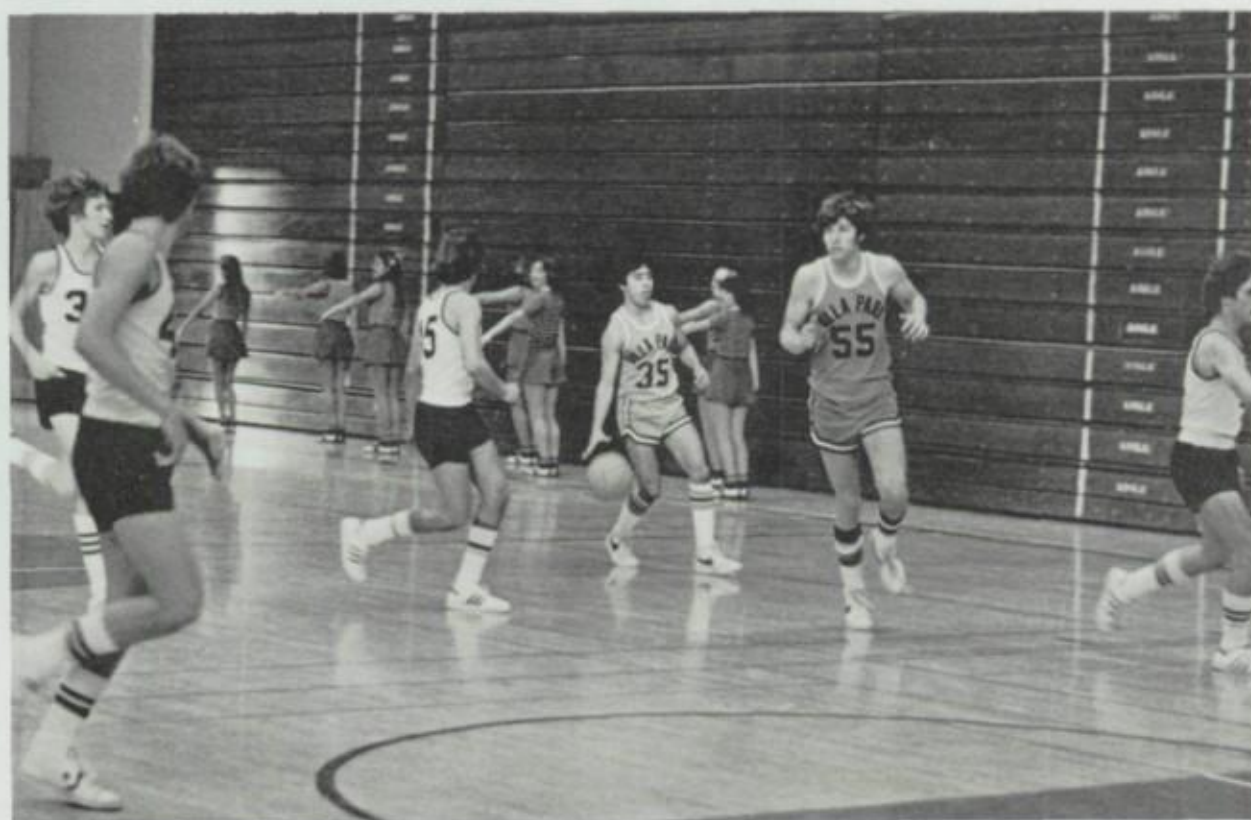

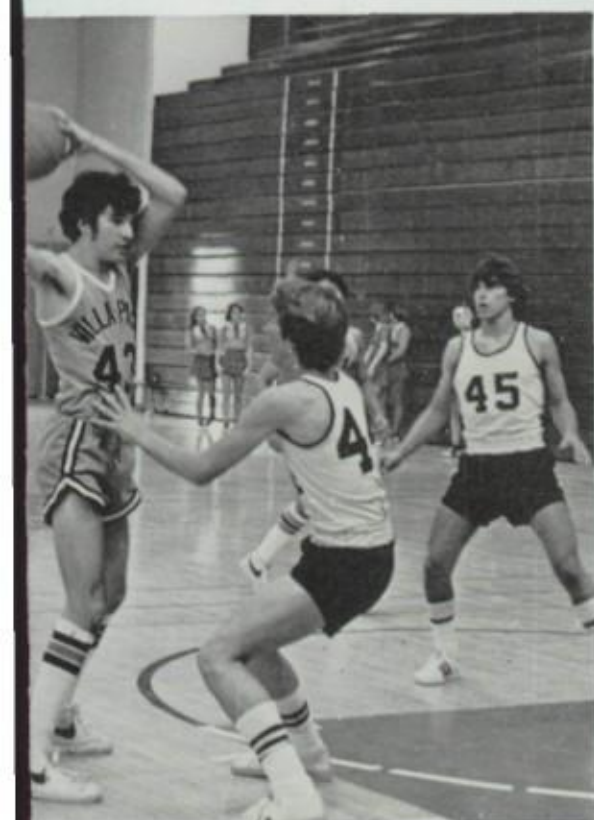

"We won because we had balanced scoring. There were three or four people who lead in points," explained Jeff Vigil.

"I enjoyed the season, and I learned how to be a team player," stated Ron Kempton.

The Sophomore Junior Varsity team went 50-50 with a 7-7 record.

"Coach Sanders taught us a lot, we learned a great deal throughout the season," commented Gary Jackson.

"The toughest victory was against Foothill. Phil Hotchkiss sank two clutch free-throws with 11 seconds left to win 39-38," explained John Joyner.

1. In the game against Troy, Valerie De Portales tries to outjump an opponent to win a tip.
2. Valerie De Portales dribbles down the court while the Troy players race to catch up.
3. Lynn McBride crosses center line as she leads a fast break.
4. Linda Zigich prevents her opponent from passing during a pre-season game.
5. In the key, Gretchen Jacobs puts up two points while a defender reaches for the ball.
6. After a V.P.H.S. rebound, Laura Frehner dribbles the ball to escape two defenders.
7. Laura Frehner jumps higher than a Troy opponent and taps the ball toward the hoop.
8. With Lynn McBride looking on, Linda Zigich tries for two points.

The girl's Varsity Basketball team finished the season in place with a 4-10 record.

When we won, we had someone who was especially good in her own aspect. Nancy Sumerall is a great shooter, Lynn McBride rebounds well, Linda Zigich is good defensively," explained Lori Simons.

"I wish it could go on forever," commented Linda Zigich.

The Junior Varsity team took third with a 9-5 record.

"I can't believe we did it," stated Ellen LeBlance, "I knew we had a good team, but this is my first year, and I never thought I'd be on a winning team.

"We really worked well as a team. When I was ever in trouble, there was always someone to turn to that I could pass the ball to," explained Gretchen Jacobs.

"At practices we work against each other to reach the top, but in matches we work as a team."

 Diane Ng reaches for a high overhead on her toes.

Led by returning singles players Jeni Wong and Julie Jahnke, Diane Ng from Hong Kong and senior, Sheri Thomas junior Kim Rother in doubles, the Badminton team started the season at 3-1. A large squad of 25 players provided strong competition during sixth period workouts and needed depth for league play. Each league match requires 24 girls, 8 singles and 16 doubles players. Perennially strong Foothill looks again like the team for VPHS to beat, and the girls looked forward to meeting them right before league finals.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity wrestling teams were lead by Coaches Brent Bailey and Don Thompson. The teams were in a process of building for next season.

Juniors Phil Buffington, Randy Knutson, Rob Johnson, sophomore Rob Heller and Senior Mark Dix lead the varsity team.

The highlight of the season was the Canyon Invitational Tournament at Canyon High School. Villa Park placed 3rd out of 17 competing high schools. Our JV team will supply next year's team with the talent that promises a successful season.

The 1977-1978 Sophomore swimming team started off with a kick, competing in their first meet against El Toro. Led by Coach Jeff Ehrlich and with the swimming of Scott Hill and Bob Mohle, the team won 95-34.

The team continued its winning streak defeating Santa Ana (87-49), El Dorado (106-77), Edison (77-44). Their first loss occurred against Tustin (49-86). After this loss, they struck back defeating Los Amigos (86-46).

Coach Ehrlich commented, "The swimmers worked hard, and their strength did not surprise me." The excellent swimming of Bruce Freeman, Bob Mohle, and Scott Hill greatly improved their chances of going to C.I.F.

1. Rick Longyear brings in a victory in the 50 yard freestyle.
2. Striving to maintain his lead, Steve Abdalla cautiously comes up for air.
3. Rising from the water, Dennis Mohle grabs for air in the individual medley.
4. Craig Aldrich successfully clinches a first place in diving.
5. Coach Ehrlich demonstrates proper strategies to his players.
6. Competing in the 100 yard butterfly, Dennis Mohle strives to place first.
7. Brian Mason decides to come up for air.
8. Doug Kimbell pensively contemplates the race.

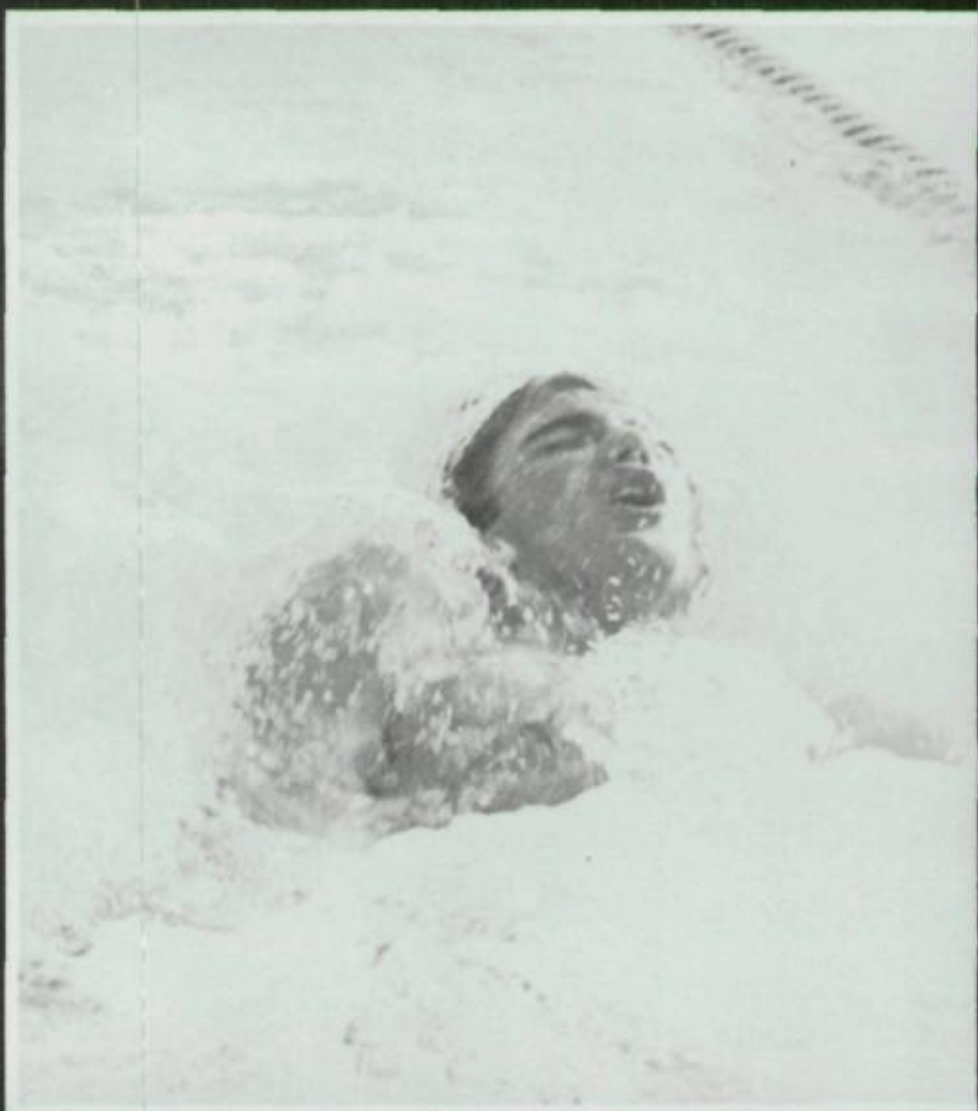

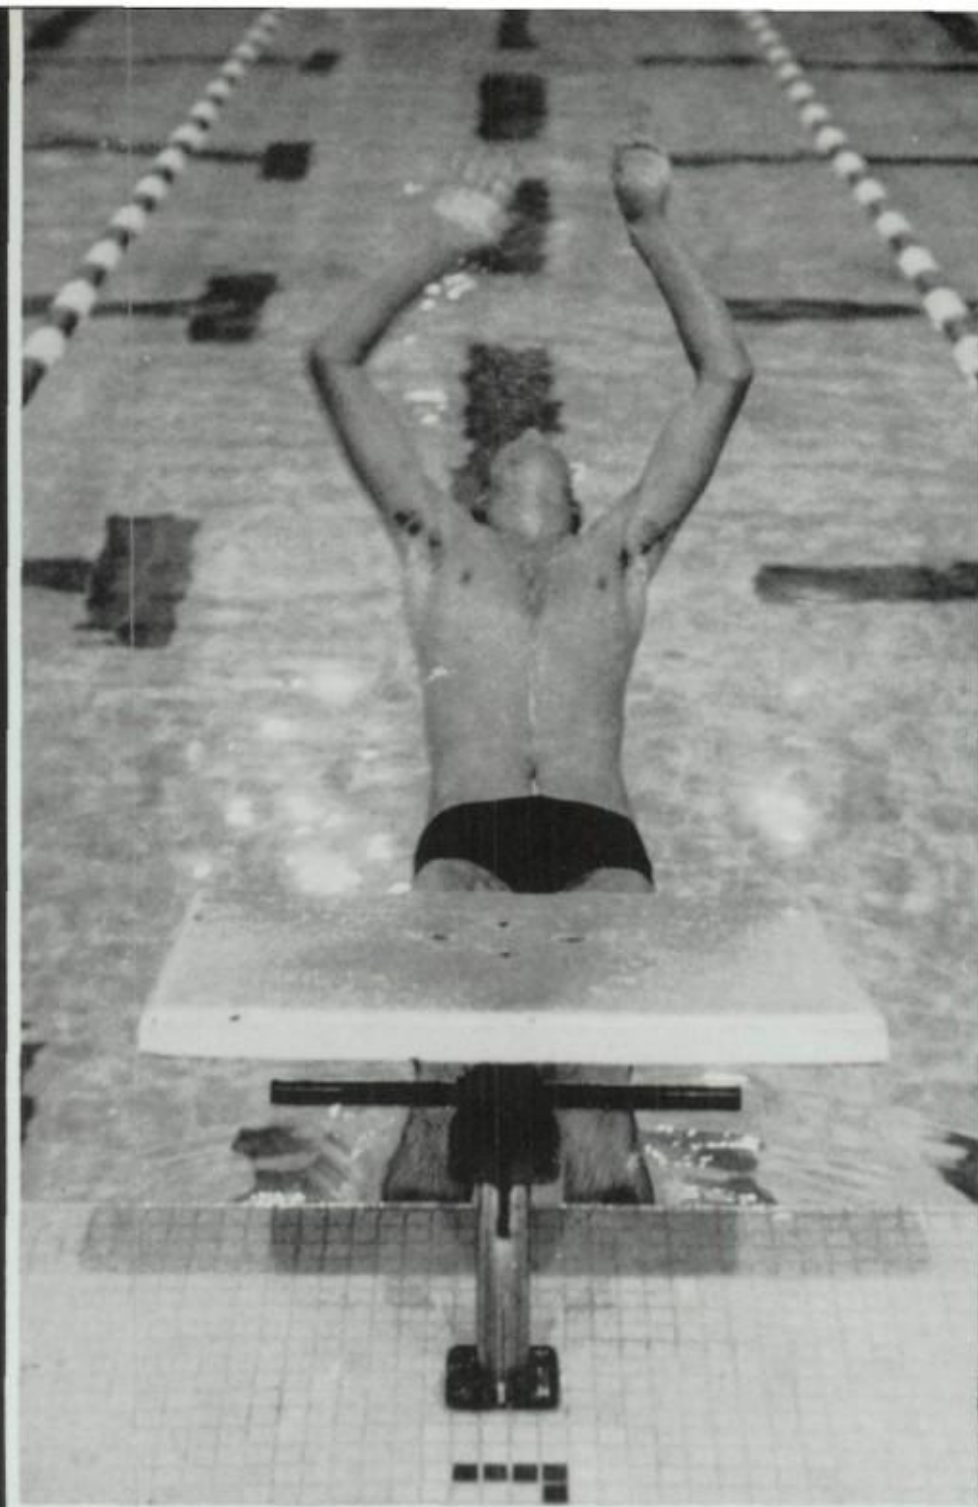

1. Paul Savaso opens up in the last 25 yards of the 100 yard breast stroke.
2. Brian Mason leads off the back stroke relay.
3. Taking a plunge, Rick Longyear dives off the block.
4. Attempting to place first, Brian Mason takes the lead over Estancia.

5. Craig Aldrich practices before the Pacifica meet.
6. Making his last kick, Doug Kimbell goes up in a splash of water.
7. At the start of the 50 yard freestyle Brian Mason, Bob Mohle and Jim Balok attempt to take the lead first.

In 1978 the Varsity swimming team started off their season on the wrong foot, losing their first meet. Despite the great effort of Doug Kimbell, the varsity team lost 84-85. They next dropped Santa Ana 117-54.

Edison, El Dorado and Villa Park competed in a tri-meet early in the season with Villa Park placing second behind El Dorado.

With the swimming help of Doug Kimbell, Dennis Mohle, John Kucera and Rick Longyear, the team won the following 6 games, lost their next game to Foothill (78-93), then bounced back to defeat Don Bosco (114-53).

The team finished the season with a 9-3 record. Doug Kimbell placing first in overall individual scores.

The Villa Park Girls swimming and Diving Teams were coached by Bernice Austin, Helen Howard, and Sam Howard.

Coach Austin instructed the very talented but inexperienced swimmers. The young swim team practiced in the early morning hours as well as sixth period and after school. The young team did very well in competition this year despite their lack of experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard (both former Olympic divers) coached the diving team composed of three new sophomores and two veteran seniors who placed first and fourth in the league the previous year.

1. Lesley Wetton grabs a breath of air during the 100 yd. butterfly.

2. Michelle Bath listens intently while coach Bernie Austin points out a form error.

3. During the 50 yd. breaststroke, Lesley Wetton looks for the wall.

4. While Mary Yasuda continues her laps, Lori Richardson rests after a hard workout.

5. Donna Baker stretches for height for a 1½ while Janet Castanza waits her turn.

6. Churning the water, Lesley Wetton concentrates on her backstroke form.

7. In the 50 yd. free style Betsy Czark stretches her lead.

The gymnastics league season started late but the girls involved started early. From January on they worked long hours perfecting difficult routines on complicated apparatus. Returning is last year's successful CIF finalist in Vault and Uneven Parallel Bars, Cindy Goss, who should lead the young team. Daria Popovich shows strength in Vaulting and Floor Exercises while Kim Moran (Uneven Parallel Bars) and Andrea Anello (Floor Exercise) also show promise. Though their team scores did not reflect it, the Girls track members enjoyed a successful year. In almost every instance times improved and most personal goals were reached or surpassed.

With strength in the distances, the team was competitive in every meet. Lana Dalberg lead a strong two mile contingent. Other standouts were Phillis Thomas in the dashes and Sonya Dakin in 110 yd lows.

Coaches Nancy Wolfe and Russ Murphy kept the girls motivated through the long season workouts.

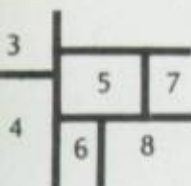

"With our new uniforms we are bound to outdo our opponents this season.

 Karen Swanson, Sophomore pitcher fires at a Brea batter.
 Ellen LaBlance strides forward to slap at a pitch.
 A good slide makes the runner safe at second.

Varsity softball returned intact the full team from last year. With the addition of five new girls, the team should challenge for the league title. Control pitcher, Sandy Willison and Sophomore, Robin Nash should provide the necessary pitching strength. The seventeen member team intends to fight for a winning start. Lynn McBride and Linda Zigich may provide the all around athletic ability needed to push the team to the top.

Rain is a pain to a spring sport like track. Sweats become soggy, legs are mud splattered and times and distances are generally slower. But rain or shine VPHS is again favored to win the league crown and produce several CIF contenders.

1. The crowd at the finish line of the 100 yd dash cheers on Mike Kilroy and Greg Halleran, involved in a very close finish.

2. While Matt Brunk checks his shoes, Dave White, assistant track coach, checks the next race's line-up.

3. Tim Woodward leads an Edison runner around the second turn in the JV two mile.

4. A wide angle lens catches the strain on Mark McCracken's face as he tries to win the JV 220.

5. Glenn Allton carefully balances before starting his pivot. He won the discus with a 144 ft toss.

6. Kevin De Vito shows the effort as he stretches for extra length in the long jump.

7. Far ahead in the JV 2 mile, Mike Brost strides easily along.

8. Staying close on the heels of the leading Edison runner, Jeff Delamare prepares for a finishing kick in the 880.

Led by the only track coach VPHS has had, Bob Mckie and paced by promising performers, Dave Cangelosi (2 mile), Jeff Bieler (shot), Willie Williams (high jump) and Tim Birkman and Mitch Lucero (120/330 hurdles), VPHS won its 27th straight dual meet early in the season.

Kevin Owens and Mark McCracken drive for a one/two finish in the 220.

Jeff Vigil seems to have plenty left as he heads for home in the Sophomore 880.

Grimacing as he clears the bar at 5' 6", Rocky Gallupo shows his "up" form.

7. Jeff Fronk plants the pole and starts his first attempt at eight feet.
8. Not hearing an approaching Edison runner, Mike J Fisher concentrates on his pace.
9. Jim Gorzo hitch-kicks to maintain height and gain extra distance in the long jump.

A large squad of 105 tracksters produced the depth needed to win dual meets on Varsity, JV and Sophomore levels. Promising Sophomores and hard-striving JVs push the Varsity to improved times and the 6th first place in the last 7 years.

 A wild throw from pitcher draws Todd Litman off the bag.

The Varsity Baseball team started on its way to being the League Champs with Dave Leeper pitching a no-hitter early in the season.

With the hitting of and pitching of Todd Litman and Dave Leeper, plus returning players such as Phil Rogers, Max Alarid, Dale Hahn, Ron Kammer, Darren Kelchner, and Steve McFarlane the team could be nothing but number one.

"It was a really good team which worked together with a great coach," commented Mark Kahn.

1. Annual staff photographer Geoff Greene covers a swim meet after a late February rain storm.
2. Getting "married" was the semester project for David Finn and Donna Blood in contemporary Family Living.
3. While "dummying" group shot pages Cindy Shields is temporarily distracted by a roving photographer.
4. Julie Bigelow, Oracle staff news editor, views with disbelief Steve Verdone's pole vault.
5. Dance/Choreography/Production students Michelle November and Lynn Fredson arrange a pose demonstrating their limberness.
6. Upset over a score on the defense Mike Mahoney hopes for a speedy end to the Santa Ana Valley game.
7. Arriving early to class Donna Wiehebrink watches the antics of her teacher during nutrition.
8. Nancy Orelup seems puzzled as to what to do while the couple next to her snuggles.

The Editor wishes to thank the following persons for their contributions to the 1977-78 Yearbook. Jerry Fullerton, Josten's American Book Representative, for all of his assistance so that we could have extra color coverage. Thanks also go to Terry Porter for getting "deadline" photos early in the year. Opening pages were done by Karen Weileman, Editor-in-Chief; opening copy was Nancy Sipe. Student Life pages were done by Nancy Sipe, Editor, Shelly Evans, Lori La, Kenny O'Donnell, Shelly Overton, Cindy Shields, and Sonya Weileman. Classion pages were coordinated by Sue Zeman with Jane and Jean Krick, Cris Benson, and Sonya Weileman. Jaime Coulson typed all of the class copy. Shelly Overton, Editor, completed the Academia pages. Sports Co-Editors Katy Kahn and Jim Weneta's staff Cris Benson, Mike Ryan and Sonya Weileman. Group Shot pages were done by Cris Benson, Jane and Jean Krick and Cindy Shields. Closing pages by Karen Weileman. Photography work was done by Jeb Beavers, Cris Benson, Jaime Coulson, Geoff Greene, Penny Grisham, Bob Hamidi, Katy Kahn, Jane and Jean Krick, Tom Mastin, Shelly Overton, Terry Porter, Cindy Shields, Lindi Walker, Karen Weileman, Dave Zahn and Dave Zaizar.

The staff is especially thankful for the cooperation of the teachers, administration and students in the handing of our polls and questionnaires.

1. First Lady Rosalyn Carter wipes her eyes as the Shah of Iran speaks. The tears were caused by tear-gas shot at demonstrators outside of the White House grounds.
2. During a nationally televised briefing President Jimmy Carter bows to emotion from the resignation of Budget Director Bert Lance whom Carter feels did the right thing.
3. After eighteen days of hospitalization for cancer Senator Hubert Humphrey addressed the Minnesota AFL-CIO.
4. Former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi whose iron rule was broken after a stunning election defeat talks with supporters after she was arrest for abusing her position as prime minister.

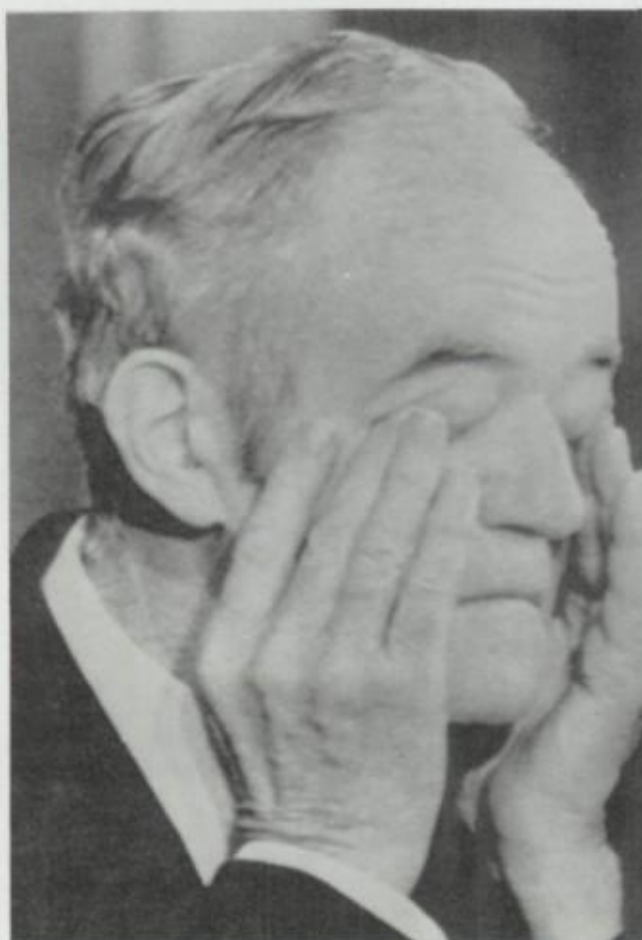

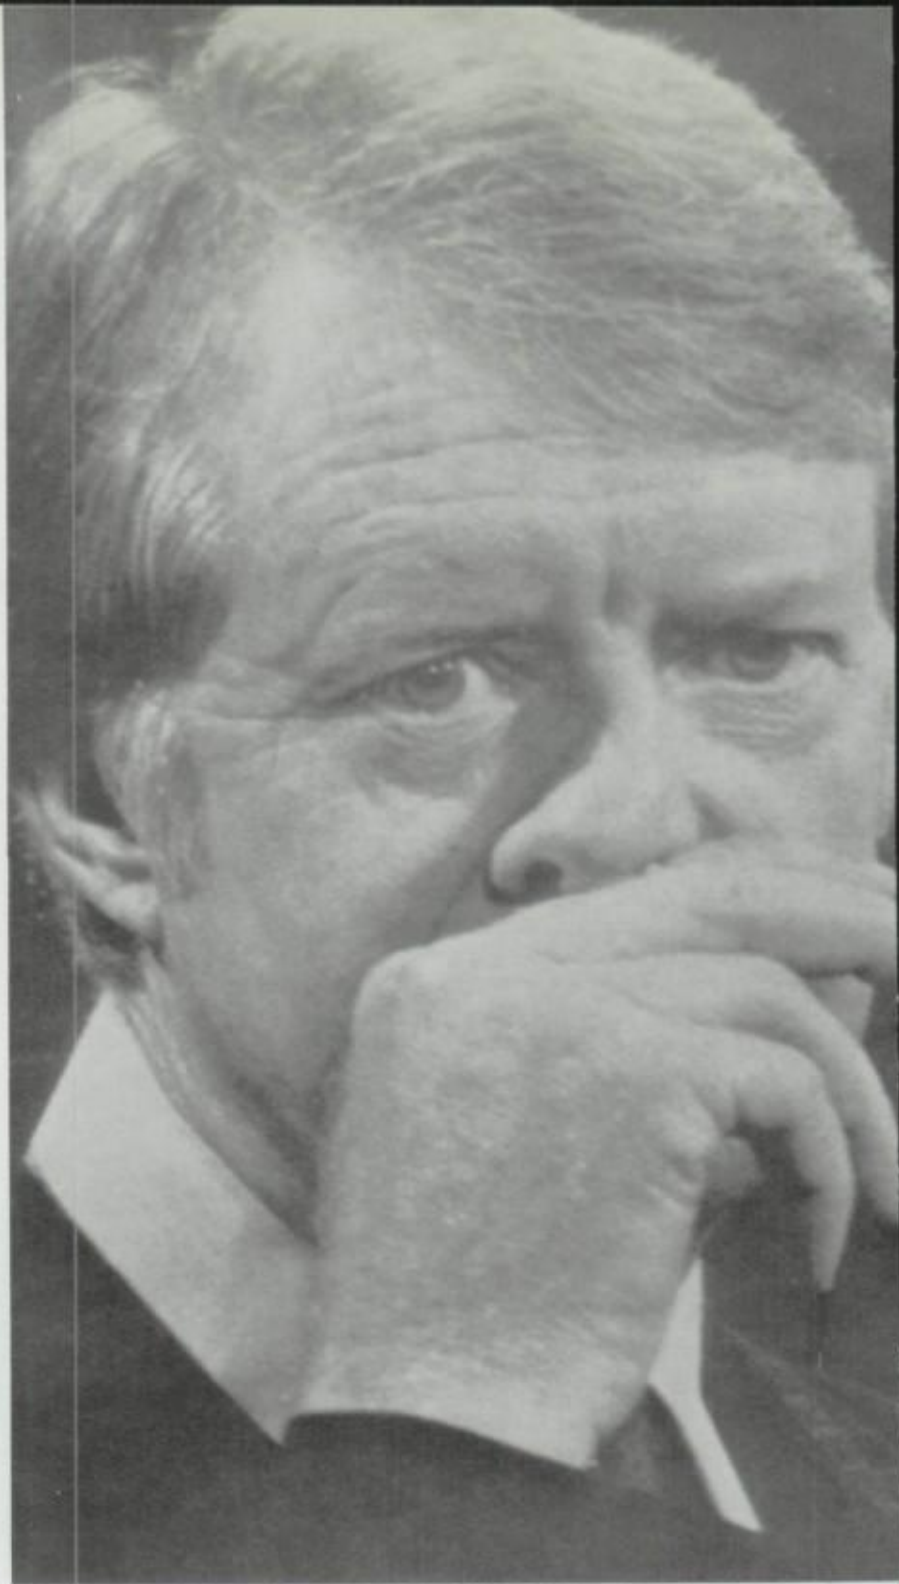

5. Beatle invasion occured again in the form of Beatlemania, a group of impersonators who performed locally at the Shubert Theater.

6. Chewbacca poses with an Orange County girl to promote Star wars, the top money making film of all time.

7. Son of Sam victim Stacy Moskowitz being taken to a Brooklyn hospital after being shot in the head on Lover's Lane.

8. At a San Fransisco news conference Dr. Christiaan Barnard discussed the failure of a baboon heart transplant into a human.

9. One composite drawing of the Hillside Strangler released in November by the Glendale Police after the strangulation death of Lisa Castin.

came to Villa Park not unlike the Spartans before us, our thoughts died with how great the year would be. We didn't have race riots, at-Ashbury or a sexual revolution but we're a by-product of that ration. Although we didn't concern ourselves with Sadat's move to e, the halt of B-1 bomber production, Panama Canal treaties, Anita nt versus gay libbers, women astronauts, and the coal strike, but those decisions shaped and molded our lives.

levision was the most sexually explicit it had ever been. Major nal magazines were constantly plastered with headlines of "Sex on and photos of these show's stars. Three's Company, Soap, I, dius, 79 Park Avenue, and What Really Happened to the Class of '65?
 ised a furor because of their sexual overtones.

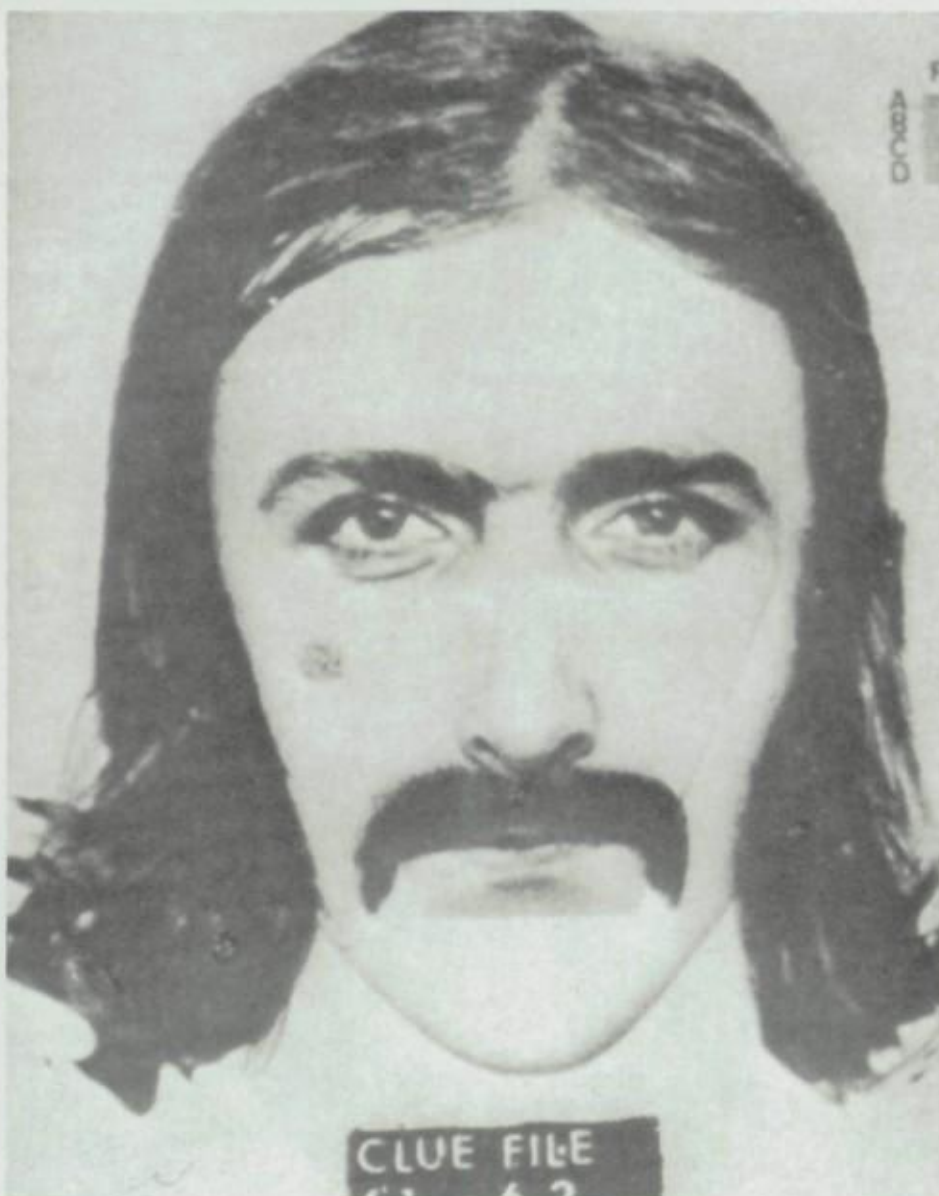

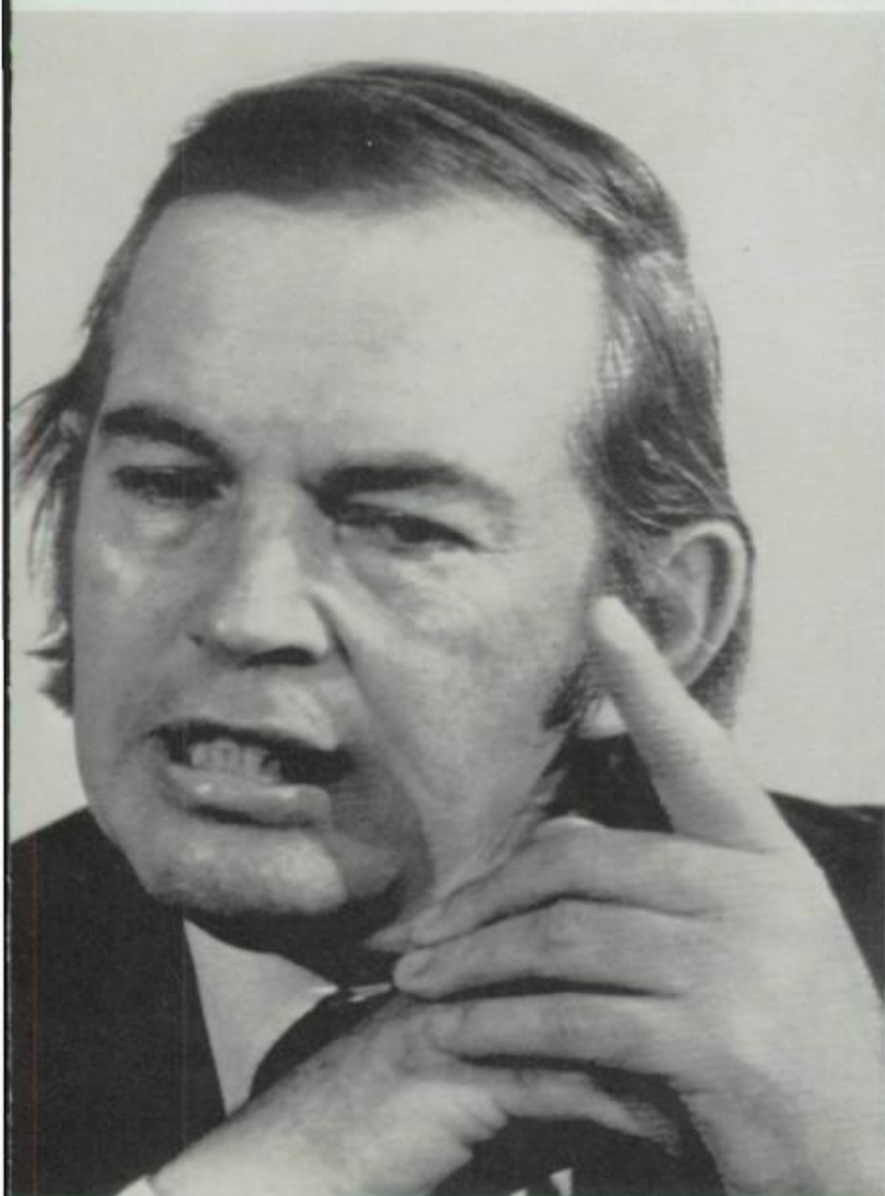

is season also continued the popular and profitable "mini-series."
Anna Karenina, Awakening Land, and Loose Change. Another nsion was added to TV by production of The Gong Show, Celebrity aments, and news surveys like the National Disaster Survey and the National Love, Sex and Marriage Test.

Discussion of laetrile as a cure for cancer and saccharine as a cause of cancer monopolized the medical scene. There was much unclear information and very little resulting action. Medically other major topics of discussion were vitamin control of mental illness, swine flu and Russian flu. The U.S.S. Enterprise, the piggyback plane tested at Edwards Air Force base, and the landing of Viking on Mars dominated this year's space triumphs.

Many of the entertainments "greats" died this year. Among them were Charlie Chaplin (old age), Elvis Presley (coronary), Bing Crosby (coronary), Groucho Marx (pneumonia, old age), Hubert Humphrey
 (cancer), General "Chappie" James (coronary), Sebastian Cabot
 (coronary), Joan Crawford (cancer), Rosalyn Russell (cancer), and Freddie Prinze (suicide).

Entertainment tore down many records believed to be unsurpassable.
 The movie industry produced Star Wars (the number one money maker

1. Fighting brush fires in Veneta with flare guns this firefighter was on a force of 10,000 men fighting to control the flames that charred 70,000 Big Sur Wilderness acres.
2. During November peace talks in Jerusalem Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin whispers to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat.
3. Has-been (?) Farah Fawcett-Majors competes in the Celebrity Challenge of the Sexes a major money making enterprise for both the celebrities and networks, top prize money being $20,000 for each individual winner.

4. Brother of the president, Billy Carter, poses with Ladonn Amota to promote "Peanut Lolita" a new peanut liquor.
5. Budget Director Bert Lance makes last minute preparations prior to testifying before the Senate Governmental Operations Committee about his financial dealings.
6. Jubilant over the near impossible acquisition of World Series Tickets this fan paid $18 to attend one of the three games played in Los Angeles.
7. Two dozen persons seized possession of the observation tower in the Statue of Liberty to demonstrate for the independence of Puerto Rico and freedom of four Puerto Rican Nationalists serving sentences for the shooting of five congressmen in 1954.
